

Four Seasons welcomes you to a vast garden enclave spread across 14 hectares (35 acres) of oceanfront, giving direct access to the beach right at sea level. Designed as a traditional Balinese village, the Resort terraces down a hillside woven with brilliant flowers and Balinese temples. Lounge by the infinity edge at the glamorous beachfront Sundara restaurant, or hide away in your villa, complete with its own private plunge pool.

Inspired by traditional Balinese architecture, each villa is housed within a private stone-walled courtyard featuring separate thatched-roof pavilions. Relax in the air-conditioned bedroom with a magnificent bathroom, featuring an oversized tub and outdoor garden shower. Or dine al fresco in your shaded living area overlooking the sun terrace and infinity-edge pool.

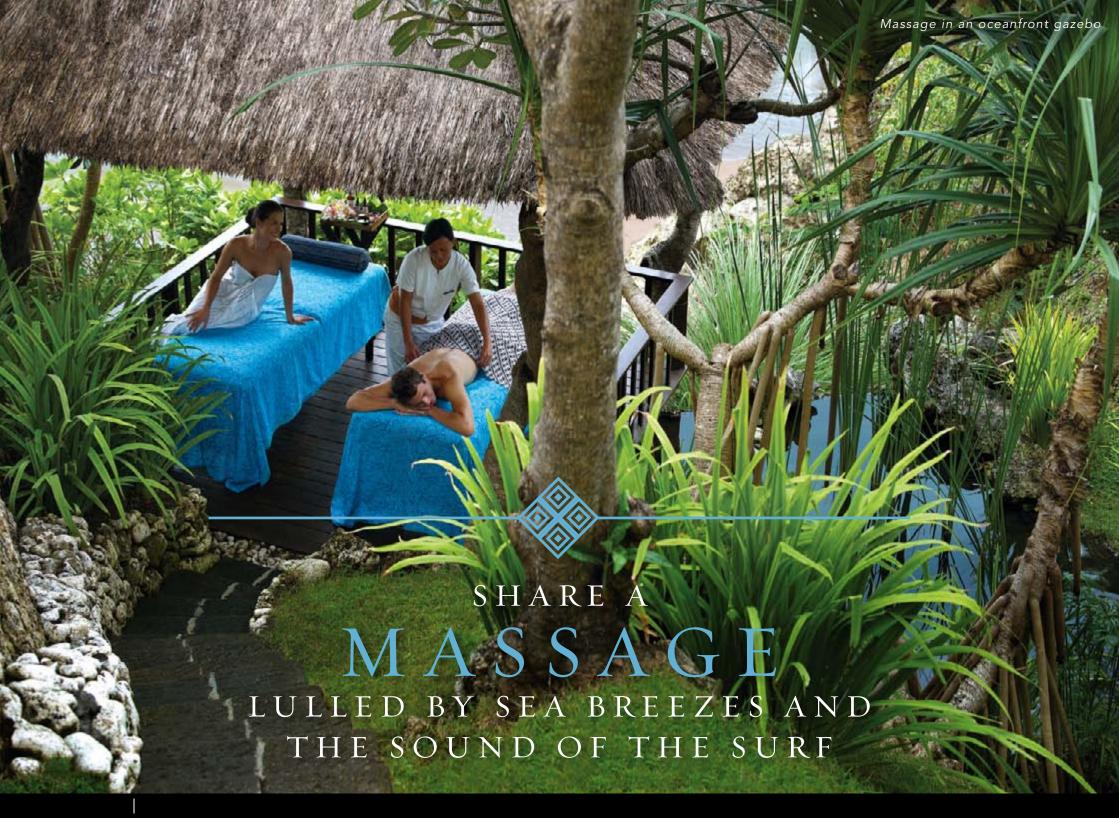

At Sundara on the beach, enjoy our menu of Australian-inspired cuisine, paired with daringly creative cocktails. At Taman Wantilan, discover home-style Indonesian fare with elevated views across Jimbaran Bay. Of course, you can always opt for private In-Villa Dining, or treat yourself to our Epic Dining Experiences – whether a private champagne breakfast for two or a decadent five-course lobster dinner – served in a secluded beachfront gazebo.

Whether you prefer oceanfront spa rituals or rejuvenating skincare therapies in our treatment rooms, the Spa reflects the healing and cleansing powers of water. In an atmosphere that feels fresh, open and uplifting, intuitive Four Seasons care brings you to a state of deep relaxation, while guiding you towards lasting wellness.

From a sunrise yoga session and a family lesson in our Balinese Cooking School to a sunset dance recital at Uluwatu Temple, we offer an inspiring array of on-site and off-site activities. Balance lazy hours by our two swimming pools with time for biking, diving or golf. Four Seasons can orchestrate every detail to ensure you complete an unforgettable Bali experience.
