SUITES

MIRAMAR SUITE

The stunning Miramar Suite, located on the hillside of the peninsula, offers sweeping views over the Pacific Ocean, bay and Resort. It features an elegant dining room and pantry. A spacious adjoining living room leads onto an expansive private outdoor living area with panoramic ocean views, suitable for outdoor dining, and a large infinity-edge pool and garden. The master suite offers a private living area and bathroom, and has views through the private gardens and natural landscape to the Pacific Ocean. The Miramar Suite is a gracious three-bedroom residence, ideal for couples, families or executives wanting privacy.

CANOPY PREMIER PLUNGE POOL SUITES (TWO- AND THREE-BEDROOM)

These suites include a separate dining area, which opens onto a private terrace that overlooks the infinity-edge plunge pool and is furnished with inviting chaises longues. The bedrooms flank the living area, which is accessed by walkways with sweeping views of the Pacific. These suites are ideal for couples or families with older children and a nanny.

CANOPY PLUNGE POOL SUITES (ONE-BEDROOM) & CANOPY SUITES (ONE-BEDROOM)

These stilted luxury tree houses are built within the lush canopy on a dramatic hillside looking down at the Pacific. The Canopy One-Bedroom Suite features a furnished, landscaped patio with an outdoor dining area and partial views of the bay. With the addition of a neighbouring suite, they are perfect for families with older children or friends vacationing together. (95 m² / 1,025 sq. ft.)

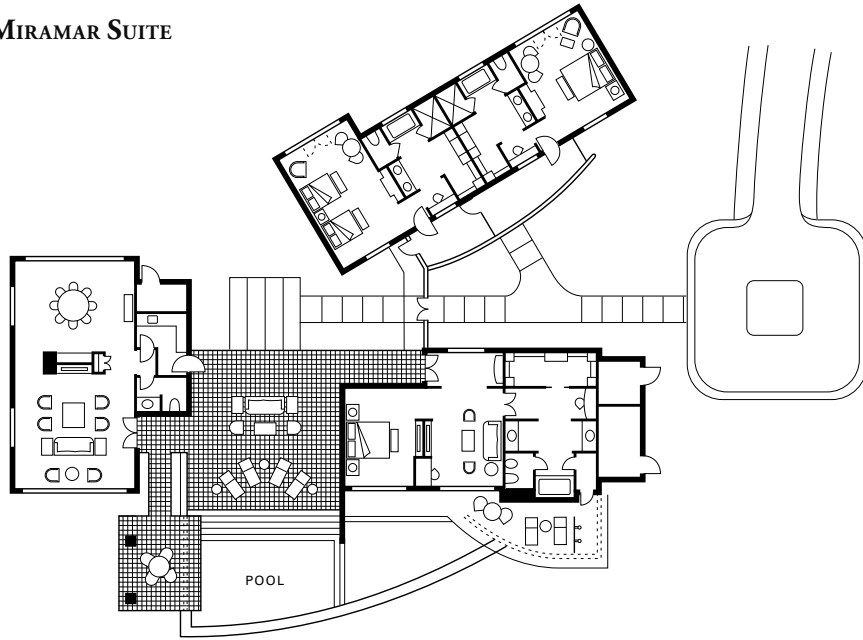

In addition, the Resort features six identical One-Bedroom Suites with plunge pools. Each has its own second powder room with full shower. Set in the uppermost tree level, these too offer views of the surrounding tropical dry forest or the bay and include a furnished, landscaped patio with an infinity-edge plunge pool (6.5 x 6.5 ft.). They are ideal for couples on a special anniversary or honeymoon. (112 m² / 1,200 sq. ft.)

Note: The Canopy Suites are not recommended for families travelling with small children.

GUEST ROOMS: CIELO, BRISA, AND TERRAZA

The 120 guest rooms, located in three four-storey buildings, are steps to the swimming pools and beaches of the Resort. The rooms are divided into three categories:

Cielo (sky), located on the third and fourth floors;

Brisa (breeze), on the second floor; and

Terraza (terrace), on the first floor.

All rooms are 56 m² (600 sq. ft.) and seamlessly blend indoor comfort with an outdoor balcony which includes a seating area overlooking the native tropical landscape, and all offer partial views of the bay or ocean.

Sliding louvred doors between sleeping and living spaces maximise privacy and invite the flow of fresh sea breezes. Natural woods and earth tones create a warm and soothing environment for guests to relax.

- Guest rooms are centrally located and only a two- to three-minute walk to lobby, spa, pools, beaches and restaurants.
- Many feature connecting rooms perfect for families travelling together.
- The airy outdoor living areas merge into spacious furnished balconies, protected by a screen.
- Maximum occupancy allows three adults, or two adults and one child in rooms with king beds; and four adults, or two adults and two children in rooms with two double beds. Extra beds are available upon request.
- The marble bathroom includes a deep soaking tub with a partial view of the canopy, separate glass-enclosed shower, double vanity, and WC in a separate room with telephone.
