OCEAN ACTIVITIES

The Alaka'i Nalu, or "leaders of the waves," are Hualālai's ocean ambassadors. Expert watermen and women, they provide a water-sports experience that shares their love and knowledge of the water and ocean life that surrounds the Resort. The Alaka'i Nalu harken back to the Hawai'i of the '30s and '40s, when beach boys were respected, fun-loving stewards of the ocean.

THE ULTIMATE ALAKA'I NALU ADVENTURE – RIBCRAFT OR CANOE

Explore secluded beaches and secret snorkel spots, swim with playful spinner dolphins, watch a manta ray glide through water or be awed by a humpback whale breach in the distance. This private charter is customized to be your perfect day on the water.

RIBCRAFT SNORKEL ADVENTURE CRUISE

Hop aboard our boat, conveniently located on property, and join us for a water adventure with Alaka'i Nalu. Extensive reefs along the North Kona coast make for fascinating snorkeling. You might even come face-to-face with our 'lucky' green sea turtles or the graceful manta ray. Hawaiian spinner dolphins are frequent visitors too.

SIX-MAN AND FOUR-MAN OUTRIGGER CANOE

A signature Hualālai experience, explore the Ka'upulehu coast just as Hawaiian ali'i (chiefs) did in ancient times. Our Alaka'i Nalu will teach you the basic skills of outrigger paddling and steer you through the waves for an unforgettable adventure.

STAND-UP PADDLING AGES 12 AND UP

There's a reason stand-up paddling or SUP is considered the fastest growing water sport in the world! It offers a fun way to gain a new perspective on the water. While standing, you can take in amazing views, the endless stretch of blue water around you and the ocean life just below your board. Paddle at a relaxing pace or increase your speed for a full-body, exhilarating workout.

KA'UPULEHU CULTURAL CENTER

8:30 A.M. – 4:00 P.M. DAILY

Deepen your Hawai'i experience at our Cultural Center. Come in and ask questions, enjoy lei making, feather art, 'ukulele lessons, Hawaiian language classes, lauhala weaving, hula lessons, shell bracelets making and discussions on the history of Hawai'i.

HAWAIIAN LEGACY REFORESTATION INITIATIVE

Experience the birth of a Hawaiian forest and plant your very own koa legacy tree. Located on the slopes of Mauna Kea, this historic site was once the personal koa forest of King Kamehameha the Great, the first king of Hawai'i. Sadly, this land was cleared nearly a century ago to make room for farming and ranching. Fortunately, some of the old-growth koa trees still reside on the property. These rare trees grow nowhere else on earth and are being used as a seed source for all legacy trees to bring the forest back to its former glory. Be a part of Hawai'i's history and create the memory of a lifetime. Tree plantings can take place as dedications, memorials, or just as a way to have a deeply authentic and meaningful experience with the native plants and animals of Hawai'i. Once planted, you will receive a certificate detailing your tree's unique RFID number and GPS coordinates, allowing you to revisit your tree at any time via Google Earth. Please contact the Concierge for tour reservations.

THE ULTIMATE POP-UP VOLCANO ADVENTURE

Take to the air for an unforgettable private charter of Hawaii Island’s majestic convergences of earth, fire and water during an adventure offered exclusively by Four Seasons Resort Hualālai.

Lifting off from the Resort’s golf course, you’ll ascend to new heights on a flight over the northern Kohala Mountains to see skyscraper-high waterfalls, hidden valleys, black-sand beaches and working ranches. Land in an exclusive-access area for a secluded catered picnic lunch beside one of the cascades, and then head south for a guided hike to Kamokuna, the point inside Hawai’i Volcanoes National Park where more than a million gallons of lava flow into the ocean every hour, expanding the island of Hawaii along its southeast coast.

One of the world’s leading volcanologists will join your group after the hike for the next leg of your trip over Kīlauea Volcano, one of the youngest and most active volcanoes in the world. From 1,000 to 5,000 feet (305 to 1,524 meters) above ground level, you’ll see lava actively flowing and hear stories about how this volcano – erupting continuously since 1983 – has affected the land, towns and people in the area. After landing near the volcano, you’ll meet your dedicated Four Seasons Volcano Ambassador, who’ll chauffeur you via luxury SUV to your home away from home for the evening: the Four Seasons Rainforest Cottage Hideaway.

The 1,800-square-foot (167-square-meter), two-level cottage with fireplace, a flat-screen TV, Wi-Fi, and an outdoor sauna house, whirlpool and showers is specially outfitted and staffed by Four Seasons just for your adventure. Sip handcrafted cocktails while enjoying a pre-dinner show of live Hawaiian music and hula dancing. After you dine on a personalized meal prepared by Four Seasons chefs, retreat to the lanai for s’mores. Close out the evening with a night visit to the Kīlauea caldera overlook with your Volcano Ambassador to witness the volcano’s glowing lava against the dark backdrop of volcanic rock fields.

The next morning, awake to the sounds of exotic rainforest birds and a chef-prepared breakfast. Afterwards, you’ll lift off for another helicopter excursion to the Kau Coast. You’ll see the southernmost point of the United States, coastal communities, the Kona coffee district, the volcano rift zone and, from approximately December to May, humpback whales. Before returning to the rainforest’s edge and Four Seasons Resort Hualālai, touch down on an expanse of secluded beach that’s hard to reach except by helicopter and spend a few hours relaxing, snorkeling and sipping mimosas. This Extraordinary Experience for up to four people is available throughout 2017 only.
