FIFTY7

Just steps above the lobby, FIFTY7 is our dramatic new event space. Combining intimacy and grandeur, the modern-deco architecture features 21-foot (6.4-meter) ceilings and oversized windows – enhancing each event with natural light. Hosting receptions for up to 270 guests, this venue includes a built-in show kitchen (visible or invisible) at one end of the room, and two large built-in screens, allowing the broadcast of any form of digital communication.

FIFTY7 may be separated into three sections using two decorative panels (sliding doors). Taking inspiration from the work of Gaston Suisse – a Parisian artist who specialized in Chinese lacquers and designs – the lacquered panels celebrate the beauty of New York’s skyline at night. Crafted by artisans and inspired by iconic architecture, FIFTY7 makes every event a special occasion.
