First Time in Dubai

New to Dubai? Let us take you on a journey of discovery that delves into the city’s fascinating past and exciting present...
Dubai may be a futuristic metropolis of skyscrapers, man-made islands and mind-blowing records but not all of its culture is lost. The city's old quarter is rife with creativity and charm, that's definitely worth exploring.

ROGER GEADAH, CHEF CONCIERGE

AL FAHIDI DISTRICT

The journey of Dubai’s heritage begins at the Al Fahidi District, which is one of the oldest heritage sites in the city, and the last wind tower quarter left on the Arabic side of the Gulf. Refined houses with coarse walls to protect the privacy of the wealthy families within are the emblems of the Al Fahidi Historical District. As you wander round the beautifully decorated shady courtyards of the district taking in cafes, art galleries and quirky boutiques, you’ll be transported back in time to a bygone era.

AN ABRAS RIDE ACROSS THE CREEK

An abra ride across the Dubai Creek is a must for anyone new to the city. Buy a one-way ticket or hire your very own abra for an hour. The Creek is the original centre of the city’s commerce and still buzzes with boats zipping up and down plying their trade and cargo. Using the abra is a great way to take in some of the older parts of the city.

DUBAI MUSEUM

A visit to Dubai Museum offers the perfect opportunity to get acquainted with the history of Dubai, giving insight into its development and modernism – a unique and distinguished civilization that has welcomed so many cultures and people, as well as an example of the strong bond the region retains with Arabism and Islam. The juxtaposition of old and new Dubai are only separated by a few years but demonstrate the ongoing success of the city.

CALLIGRAPHY HOUSE

The traditional art of Arabic calligraphy is a beautiful experience to watch. Visit Siwar Art Gallery – a tiny calligraphy house nestled in the heart of Bastakiya – and a local calligrapher will take you through the process before crafting you enchanting pieces of art incorporating the words that mean most to you translated into Arabic.

A Beautiful Past

Dubai may be a futuristic metropolis of skyscrapers, man-made islands and mind-blowing records but not all of its culture is lost. The city’s old quarter is rife with creativity and charm, that’s definitely worth exploring.

HERITAGE VILLAGE

Heritage Village in the historic neighborhood of Al Shindagha was built in 1997. Created to showcase the traditional lifestyle of Emirati culture in Dubai, it gives an introduction to the customs, professions, and local craftsmanship of the city. The architecture is diverse and interesting too, with a mixture of tents, stone builds and palm fronds.

THE SOUKS

Travel back in time to the heart of old Dubai, where the bustling souks will treat your senses to rich sounds, sights and scents. Follow your nose to the Perfume Souk and indulge your desire for sought-after jewels and precious metals at the Gold Souk. Across the Dubai Creek, wander through the Textile Souk in Bur Dubai and dig through swathes of brightly colored silks and embroidered fabrics.

SHEIKH MOHAMMED CENTRE OF CULTURAL UNDERSTANDING

Gain a greater appreciation of Dubai’s culture and customs at the Sheikh Mohammed Centre for Cultural Understanding (SMCCU). The SMCCU opened in 1998 to help visitors gain a better understanding of the culture and customs of the UAE. The institution invites guests to take part in their full schedule of activities, including a range of Arabic classes, heritage tours, and guided mosque visits. Located in a beautifully restored wind tower house in the historic Al Fahidi Historical Neighborhood in Bur Dubai, the centre offers a range of activities, from traditional cuisine to conversations with local Emiratis. With its motto ‘Open Doors, Open Minds,’ all questions – no matter how sensitive – are welcome and answered. Sign up for a traditional Emirati breakfast, lunch, or dinner and you’ll start with a guided walking tour of the Al Fahidi Historical Neighborhood. Then take a seat on Bedouin-style carpets and pillows and enjoy a selection of traditional dishes while your local host answers questions about life in the emirate.

JUMEIRAH MOSQUE

Take a visit to the stunning Jumeirah Mosque, the only mosque in Dubai that welcomes non-Muslim guests six days a week. As one of the most beautiful landmarks in Dubai, the Jumeirah Mosque is large enough to hold up to 1,200 worshippers and was built entirely from white stone in the medieval Fatimid tradition, with towering twin minarets framing a large central dome. When it’s lit up at dusk, its intricate artistry and true beauty are highlighted. Please note that women are asked to wear a scarf when visiting.
DOWNTOWN DUBAI

AT THE TOP – BURJ KHALIFA, DUBAI MALL, SOUK AL BAHAR AND THE FOUNTAINS

A visit to the world’s tallest building is a must during your time in Dubai. As you journey upwards, tune in to a multimedia presentation in which you will learn about the history and development of Dubai’s Burj Khalifa. After your visit, right next door is Dubai Mall – which is retail heaven, boasting 1,200 shops as well as an Aquarium, children’s theme parks and the Dubai Ice rink. For a modern take on a traditional Arabian market, Souk Al Bahar is full of beautiful ornaments, jewelry, spices and gifts to take home for family and friends. It is easily accessible from Dubai Mall. Complete your downtown experience with the most magical moments at The Fountains in front of the Burj Khalifa and next to Dubai Mall. Featuring the world’s largest choreographed fountain system, the show jets up to 22,000 gallons of water as high as 150 metres in the air at any one time. Each colorful, illuminated jet sways in time to music, producing what has become the most popular show in Dubai. The beam of light shining upward from the fountain can be seen from more than 30km away.

THE PALM

Palm Jumeirah is one of the emirate’s most iconic landmarks, a man-made island in the shape of a palm tree, brimming with stunning beachfront villas, best-in-class dining establishments, marinas, water parks and shopping facilities. Come to the Lost Chambers of the Atlantis and explore the best of the underwater world on your own, experience the unbelievable rush of excitement and test your guts on the adrenaline pumping rides at the Aquaventure waterpark, or swim and play with the friendly Dolphins at the Dolphin Bay. If you are an adrenaline-seeker, enjoy the view of the Palm-shaped archipelago while free-falling over it at 120 mph via a skydiving excursion.

DUBAI MARINA

Dubai Marina is a striking neighborhood with some of the tallest residential buildings in the world. Be ready to crane your neck and take in the awe-inspiring high-rise skyline. It is also renowned for The Beach at JBR, which is a leisure strip with al-fresco dining and a sandy stretch of beach to lounge on. At the weekend, a market lines the waterside promenade and has wonderful stalls selling beachwear, jewelry, coconuts, ice-cream and more. In the main, man-made marina, observe the shining upscale yachts, jet-skiing and even the sky diving.

Dubai is a constantly changing city, filled with an endless supply of new buildings, attractions and continuous expansion. Some of the city’s latest developments will have you spell bound!

An Exciting Future
SOUK MADINAT AND BURJ AL ARAB

For a modern take on a traditional souk, this popular Arabic market is sure to deliver. Take in the perfumed scents, the glowing lanterns, the fragrant spices and the artisanal souvenirs - you're sure to find the perfect items to take home with you. The souk is particularly beautiful at night, and a diverse selection of restaurants and cafes will provide the cuisine you're looking for. There's even a waterway that will transport you by abra along the canals, where you have the superlative views over the Burj al Arab, one of the most iconic symbols of modern Dubai.

DUBAI WATER CANAL AND CITY WALK

Dubai Water Canal and City Walk are the city’s newest attractions. The long waterway winds its way to the Arabian Gulf from the Creek in Old Dubai through to Business Bay. After a ride on the Canal in a state-of-the-art speedboat, take a stroll around City Walk, which has been built in a style that is reminiscent of European streets and is full of designer stores and restaurants. And if you look up from the area, you’ll be able to enjoy striking views of the Burj Khalifa.

DUBAI DESIGN DISTRICT

Dubai Design District (better known as d3) has been described as a “home for the region’s growing community of creative thinkers”. It houses design studios, high-end apartments and a shopping promenade. Stroll through the public walkways to uncover the charm of the area, where creative objects are littered across the concrete paved path. Not to be missed is a visit to block 6, which is a large atrium with unique hanging light art and wooden seating featuring a very special design.

EXPO 2020

Dubai’s Expo will be a festival of human ingenuity. The engines of growth are no longer steam-powered. Instead, collaboration and partnership have taken its place, becoming the driving force behind new developments. Expo 2020 Dubai will showcase and explore what is possible when new ideas and people connect.

AIN DUBAI

Add one more item to the list of world records to be broken by the city of Dubai. Located on Bluewaters Island, the Ain Dubai observation wheel will be built to a height of 210 metres, the highest of its kind in the world. Once complete, Ain Dubai will be the largest and highest in the world, easily providing views of landmarks such as Burj Al Arab, Palm Jumeirah and Burj Khalifa.
SECTION 2:

A Destination for all Seasons

A trip to Dubai points towards sun, sand, beach and shopping. The best time to go to this scorching hot city is during its cooler months, i.e. in between November and April, when the hot sun is at rest and cool with blowing winds during the evenings and night time. Even if you visit the city sometime during the rest of the year you will find the air-conditioned hotels, malls and other complexes well equipped to keep off the heat. We have compiled a selection of exciting events and venues to keep you busy in Dubai throughout the seasons.
A Winter Wonderland

DUBAI PARKS AND RESORTS
An exciting labyrinth of theme parks, superb dining, luxury and relaxation, Dubai Parks and Resorts is the ultimate destination for fun and entertainment in Dubai. From thrilling roller coasters and action-packed water rides to themed outdoor plazas and enthralling live music and dance performances, Dubai Parks and Resorts offers a world of recreation and pleasure fit for all ages.

DESERT SAFARIS
You can’t visit Dubai and NOT go to the desert. Leave Dubai’s skyscrapers for the empty desert, where you can enjoy a host of activities, including a dune bash, camel ride, sand boarding, henna art, and more. Finish with a tasty barbecue dinner under the stars, along with fire dancing, magic, belly dancing, and dervish-style ‘tanoura’ shows.

YACHTING
For another luxurious alternative, you can sail aboard a yacht charter and enjoy the magnificent views of Dubai’s futuristic skyscrapers like Burj Al Arab and relax in the lounge or on the sundeck of the elegant boat. Whether it is for corporate events, birthdays, wedding ceremonies or get-togethers, a fleet of yachts with different sizes are available to fulfill any of your wishes.

WALKING TOURS OF OLD DUBAI
Apart from the awe-inspiring mega structures, Dubai is also known for its well-preserved historical sites. We recommend you join a guided walking tour to learn more about the local culture of Dubai. The tours may vary but most of them include walking through the Al Fahidi Cultural Neighbourhood, Dubai Creek and the Gold and Spice Souks, exploring the Dubai Museum to learn about times gone by, and crossing the Dubai Creek in a traditional abra.

Balloon Tours
Enjoy this magic carpet ride over an endless ocean of sand dunes, emerald green oases, oryx, gazelles and wandering camels. Witness a breathtaking sunrise with the backdrop of the majestic Hajar Mountains and be welcomed by the warmth of the desert people we chance to meet on landing. Get driven to our traditional Bedouin camp in our signature vintage Land Rovers.

The best time to visit Dubai is during its winter months when the temperature is just right, however, there is such a wide range of both outdoor and indoor activities to enjoy that the fun doesn’t stop when the weather heats up too!

DIVING
There’s so much to explore beneath the surface of the Arabian Gulf. With the option of pool or open water dives for beginners and classes available at local scuba schools for all skill levels, Dubai is the ideal spot for an introduction to the hobby. In case you are not quite ready for open water, take the plunge at some of the world’s famous aquariums in Dubai for a guaranteed sighting of thousands of marine animals, including sharks.

NIGHTLIFE
Dubai has much to offer in terms of late night entertainment and the emirate regularly hosts some of the most popular club nights and DJs from around the globe. The party scene in Dubai is restricted mostly to large hotels as these establishments have a liquor license that allows them to serve alcohol in their bars, lounges and clubs. If you plan on drinking, make sure you take a cab back, because getting caught will guarantee jail time.

AL-FRESCO DINING
A city constantly bathed in sunlight, Dubai knows how to best enjoy good weather, with the mild winter a prime time for al fresco lunches, brunches and dinners. Enjoy Middle Eastern-style lunch in pool-view gardens at SUQ, Asian seafood dinner by the sea at Sea Fu, before drinks and nibbles the Mediterranean way at Mercury Lounge – one of the most glamorous rooftop bars in Dubai boasting a spectacular view of the city’s skyline.

THE BEACH
Dubai is home to some of the best beaches in the UAE. Many of the beaches are affiliated with hotels and only accessible by in-house guests. However, there are beaches that can be enjoyed at no cost whatsoever or for a minimal charge, and offer decent facilities that are kept relatively clean and patrolled by lifeguards. It is perfectly acceptable to wear swimwear at the beach. Sun, sand, clear skies and blue water – in Dubai you are bound to find your perfect beach.

HELECOPTER TOURS
See the city from the air with a bird’s eye view of the iconic landmarks by day. This is an ideal way to see Dubai if you have limited time or want to celebrate a special occasion.

LA MER
Literally translating to 'The Sea', La Mer is a new beachfront destination that boasts a number of shops, cafes and restaurants which spans over 13.4 million square feet of existing and reclaimed land. Whether you enjoy laidback fun at Dubai’s eclectic beachfront, a journey through the bustling backstreets of the Wharf or a kick back at the beach, La Mer has something for everyone.

GOLF
Home to three of the world’s top golf courses and host to three major world tournaments during the winter months, Dubai is certainly on the global golf radar. Golf in Dubai is for everyone. It’s for both experienced players and beginners, families or solo players. There is coaching available too.
Extreme sports activities are right at hand in Dubai. Desert dune driving has to be the most exhilarating and will get the hearts racing of even the most daring adrenaline seekers!

HARMONY AMALAHA, GUEST SERVICES SUPERVISOR
Summer Fun

The fun activities don’t stop as the temperature rises in Dubai, they just multiply. There are a bunch of indoor activities you can enjoy during these last of the scorching months, and we’ve picked out our favourites.

DUBAI SUMMER SURPRISES (DSS)

The DSS basically means six weeks of sales, deals and events to keep people entertained through the city’s hottest months. The city changes its colors to yellow and blue, as Modhesh the mascot comes out to entertain residents and tourists alike. Not only will you be able to benefit from the ultimate sales on your favorite brands, you will also get amazing discounts on Dubai’s top attractions. As part of DSS, 72 hour-sales are held from Monday to Wednesday each week during DSS, and brands have additional discounts. Lastly, the grand final sale usually takes place over the last three days of DSS and features the very last price cuts of the summer. Besides this there are performances by international stars, plenty of stage shows, roaming acts and the malls are packed with freebies and surprises. This is the best time to upgrade your closet and enjoy the summer.

WATER SPORTS & WATER PARKS

Diving, sailing, jet-skiing. When it comes to marine thrills Dubai has it all. With more than 50km of coastline, water sports abound in Dubai. Making the most of the clear skies and temperate days, you can opt for a leisurely dusk sail, a high-speed tour on a jet-ski or something a little more daring like Flyboarding or the latest thrill, Seabreaching.

For those who like to take things a little easier, the water parks in Dubai have something for everyone, from thrilling rides for adrenaline junkies to idyllic beaches and poolside lounges.
IMG WORLD

IMG World of Adventure is the world’s largest temperature-controlled indoor theme park offering numerous rides and attractions. The park is divided into four zones, Marvel Comics, Cartoon Network, Lost Valley Dinosaur Adventure and IMG Boulevard. Each zone has rides and experiences that reflect its theme perfectly. Aside from roller coasters, thrill rides and attractions, IMG World of Adventure is also home to a number of retail stores, exclusive dining venues and a 12-screen multiplex cinema.

RESTAURANTS FOR DINING OUT IN THE EVENING

If you can’t help but take advantage of the great outdoors, before sunrise is the best time to go for a jog or desert safari. However, if you’re not an early bird, gather your group of dearest people and have a sunset feast at your favourite restaurant when the temperature cools down in the evening. Most of the restaurants and bars in Dubai open until late, and close even later for Iftar during Ramadan.

Summertime is a popular time for locals to jet off on vacation, so outdoor venues and rooftop lounges are closed as it is off-season and the temperature can be unbearable outside. However, there are plenty of ways to enjoy Dubai despite the tremendous heat.

Indoor Activities

When the weather becomes too unbearable, it is time to move on to indoor activities.

Hidden Gems

Dubai offers all kinds of world cuisines, from street food (Indian, Arabic) to fine dining with internationally renowned signature chefs. Don’t hesitate to contact our Concierge team, who will be more than happy to help you create your very own foodie adventure.

RAVI’S, SATWA
Located in the heart of Satwa, Ravi’s is not about fine dining, but what you will find here is excellent, extremely affordable Pakistani food. Everything is very basic, like the plastic chairs and plastic tablecloths, but the focus is on the cooking. There is a menu, however staff will tell you what is available when you are there and recommend what to have. According to locals, Ravi’s is the cheapest and most delicious Pakistani restaurant in Dubai, but be careful, the food is spicy.

BU QTAIR, JUMEIRAH BEACH
Bu Qtair is known in the Jumeirah neighborhood for its affordable prices and tasty seafood dishes. The menu is very limited and you have the option to choose between two local fishes: hamour or sherif and fresh prawn. Accompaniments of white rice and paratha are served with your main. It can become very busy once the evening sets in, so we recommend getting there early to avoid the crowds.

AJI, THE PALM
Aji (pronounced Ah-hee) specialises in Nikkei cuisine, which is a combination of Japanese and Peruvian food. Set in the Palm’s beachfront dining venue, Club Vista Mare, the restaurant is beautiful and glamorous but not pretentious. Typical of any fusion restaurant, you get a mixture of cooking styles and ingredients, and dishes here may present as the most Instagrammable food gimmick.

BB DIFC
Located in DIFC on Happiness Street, BB promises to bring social dining to the region; a fresh, homegrown approach to an Eastern menu, delivered with polished but light-hearted service, and found in a compelling, compact interior. Signature dishes are mindful of guests’ appetites by offering an Inclusive not Exclusive approach with Vegan, Vegetarian and Meat based dishes.
A taste of the Middle East

AL FANAR

Have you ever wondered what Dubai was like in the 1960s? Consider Al Fanar a time machine. The restaurant is set in a very traditional Emirati interior, which gives the feel of an old Emirati city and serves traditional Emirati cuisine, just how grandma used to make it. Al Fanar is particularly popular with locals who enjoy leisurely feasts in its cushioned, majlis-style tents.

Mama Tani, which means ‘second mother’ in Arabic, is an Emirati soul food café in Jumeirah that serves an array of local delicacies. The menu is simple and Mama Tani breakfast is served all day. SIRAJ, SOUQ AL BAHAR

Siraj is one of the finest restaurants in Dubai to serve Emirati-Levantine fusion cuisine and one that attracts a reassuringly local crowd. The restaurant’s interiors pay tribute to the UAE, with seven distinct arches representing each Emirate. The menu mixes old with new and offers traditional dishes. There is an area outside for shisha too.

Gather a hungry group of friends or starve yourself for a week, or both, and be prepared to enjoy an enormous feast.

EM SHERIFF
As one of Dubai’s most sought-out Middle Eastern restaurants, Em Sheriff is well-known for serving authentic Lebanese cuisine amidst a fascinating architectural vision of royal blue hues and charming vintage pieces designed to look like an antique Lebanese mansion. The restaurant doesn’t have a menu and, for a fixed price, you’ll get 32 dishes delivered to the table.

Al Nafoorah boasts of an extensive menu and serves the finest Lebanese cuisine, in the most opulent and remarkable surroundings. The restaurant is lavishly decorated with high ceilings and dark woodcarvings to create a characteristically majestic feel, while the ambiance remains warm and relaxed.
