

FOUR SEASONS
HOTEL DES BERGUES
GENEVA

ABOVE ALL ELSE IN GENEVA...
A LANDMARK ON THE LAKE

Opened in 1834 as Geneva’s very first hotel, our landmark on the lake welcomes you with a fresh, inspiring sense of history, enhanced by thoughtfully personalized care. Appealing for both business and leisure, Four Seasons Hotel des Bergues Geneva stands within easy walking distance of the financial district and Old Town, mixing luxury shopping on the Rue du Rhône with dynamic dining and nightlife.

THE ATMOSPHERE IS BOTH
INTIMATE AND EXQUISITE

CLASSICAL ELEGANCE COMES TO LIFE, FEELING FRESH,
LIGHT AND MODERN

Guided by renowned interior designer Pierre-Yves Rochon, our bright and airy guest rooms and suites creatively blend the traditional and the contemporary, while discreetly providing the latest technology. Like personal apartments, all suites on the sixth floor include fireplaces, creating the atmosphere of a cosy Swiss chalet – lovely for a weekend retreat or a long-term stay. Enchanting views encompass Lake Geneva and the Jet d’Eau, Old Town streetscapes and the elegant inner courtyard.

ILLUSTRIOUS EVENTS UNFOLD IN A BALLROOM CREATED IN 1920

With a glittering ballroom specifically created for the first meeting of the League of Nations in 1920, Four Seasons Hotel des Bergues is Geneva's most illustrious venue for meetings, cocktail receptions and social events. Incorporating five function rooms, the facilities are conveniently secluded on the first floor, offering lofty windows and private outdoor terraces with lake views – a rarity among event spaces in Geneva. Intelligent and experienced Four Seasons staff add a smooth polish to every occasion.
