ALOHA FROM LĀNA'I

HAU'OLI NA LANUI! HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

We look forward to celebrating this special time of year with you here at Four Seasons Resort Lāna'i.

Lāna'i was once one of the world's largest pineapple plantations. Today, with only about 3,000 residents, Lāna'i remains like the Hawai'i of yesterday: unspoiled, unhurried and unequaled. You won't find any stoplights, traffic or fast-food restaurants. Instead, you will discover serenity, tradition and history on your own 90,000-acre (36,422-hectare) island.

We invite you to experience our unmatched diversity of activities, including championship golf, horseback riding, hiking and off-road adventures. In addition, you can choose from many top-rated ocean sports, including snorkeling, scuba diving and beachcombing on some of Hawai'i's most pristine beaches. Or you may simply prefer to be pampered in our world-class spa. The options are limitless and the choice is yours.

Please explore these pages to create your own personalized festive experience – and don't miss our fantastic evening events, ranging from special dinners and concerts to our own New Year's Eve celebrations.

For more information about the festive season, feel free to contact our Lāna'i Resort Associates at +1 (800) 321-4666 or by email at festive.lanai@fourseasons.com.

We are eagerly anticipating your arrival.

There are also more challenging hikes along cliffs and ridges.

At the Lāna'i Archery & Shooting Range, you'll find a 14-station, state-of-the-art course, providing an exciting experience for both novice and experienced shooters. Friendly staff make everyone feel comfortable. Located on the north side of the island, on the plains of Mahana, the range offers spectacular views of Moloka'i and Maui. Enjoy archery adventures as well.

VISITING LĀNA'I CITY

The island's main town, Lāna'i City was established when James Dole purchased nearly the entire island in November 1922 in order to cultivate pineapples. Dole built a plantation camp – now Lāna'i City – and the layout was influenced by traditional town designs, where streets are arranged in grid style around a main square or green. Between 1924 and 1929, Lāna'i City prospered, and most of the existing buildings and streets were constructed during this short period. Today the population is about 3,000 people. It's a fun place to come for a "Dole Stroll," visiting the local shops, galleries, coffee shops and restaurants, as well as the Lāna'i Culture & Heritage Center.

LĀNA'I CULTURE AND HERITAGE CENTER

From the 1950s through the 1970s, Lāna'i was the world's largest pineapple plantation, but there is much more to its history. Our island's official museum, the Lāna'i Culture & Heritage Center – located in Lāna'i City – covers nearly a millennium of changes, from 1000 AD when the first Hawaiians settled here to the end of the plantation era in 1992. The museum features all kinds of local treasures: clothing, furniture, plantation equipment, poi pounders and ulu maika (bowling) stones that residents found when working in the fields. It's a fascinating opportunity learn more about this unique island paradise.

HO'OKIPA CULTURAL PROGRAM

Learn about Hawaiian history, art and culture from our island's kupuna (elders). Meet Auntie Irene and Uncle Bully Davis who originally started selling locally made crafts at Keōmoku on Lāna'i over 20 years ago. Our Ho'okipa (Hospitality) Cultural Program presents an ongoing series of complimentary interactive classes. The goal is to enrich and inspire, while allowing access to the island's most revered elders as they educate and share their cultural knowledge, oral history, tradition and art. Highlights include ukulele lessons, coconut weaving, lei making, and "talk story" sessions.
