FOUR SEASONS
RESORT
MAUI AT WAILEA

SAVOUR THE MAUI MOMENTS

MAUI
DINING GUIDE

DISCOVER THE FLAVORS OF MAUI

With our curated dining guide, featuring everything from world-class Italian cuisine to beloved local favorites. Whether you're craving fresh island seafood, innovative fine dining, or casual bites with an ocean view, let us guide you to the best culinary experiences the island has to offer.

ON-PROPERTY

DUO Steak & Seafood

Breakfast & dinner, modern steakhouse

A modern open-air steakhouse where relaxed island warmth meets polished service. DUO serves pillowy pancakes and tropical fruit by morning, then transitions to premium steaks and locally-caught seafood by evening. The atmosphere blends refined service with an island breeze.

Ferraro's Restaurant & Bar

Coastal Italian Cuisine

Wailea's most iconic oceanfront restaurant captures the spirit of la dolce vita with handmade pastas, house-infused limoncello, and sweeping Pacific views. Evenings glow with candlelight in the open-air restaurant under the stars.

KOMO

Japanese fine dining & sushi by Chef Kiyo Ikeda

Guided by Tokyo-born Chef Kiyo Ikeda, KOMO showcases rare seafood flown in twice weekly from Tokyo's legendary fish market, alongside exquisite omakase experiences. A refined interpretation of Japanese cuisine shaped by world-class ingredients and an elevated sense of place.

Lobby Lounge

Craft cocktails, sushi & dim sum

The heart of the resort, the Lobby Lounge features nightly hula, torch lighting at sunset, and live music throughout the evening. Known for its craft cocktails and imaginative pupus, all set against sweeping ocean views.

Spago Maui by Wolfgang Puck

Pacific Rim Cuisine and Panoramic Ocean Views

Spago blends island-sourced ingredients with Wolfgang Puck's signature approach to California cuisine. An international wine list and refined takes on Hawaiian cocktails complement a setting that is relaxed yet polished, with panoramic ocean views and sunset-facing lanai seating.

★ Explore our concierge tips marked with a star.

For reservations, contact the Concierge via Chat, or

808.874.8000 ext. 55
concierge.maui@fourseasons.com
fourseasons.com/maui

Assorted Crudo at Ferraro's

WAILEA & SOUTH MAUI

The Restaurant at Hotel Wailea

Seasonal fine dining with panoramic views

A wonderful culinary option perched above Wailea's coastline, offering one of Maui's most romantic dining settings. The refined, multi-course menu celebrates the island's seasonal ingredients with sophistication and balance, featuring line-caught fish, locally grown produce, and artful presentations that honor Maui's farmers and fishermen. Elegant and unhurried, this open-air restaurant pairs breathtaking sunset views with impeccable service.

★ Request a table on the garden terrace under the lanterns for the most romantic experience.

Birdcage Lounge at Hotel Wailea

Cocktails & small plates with island flair

An airy, open-concept lounge perched above Wailea with sweeping ocean views and a sophisticated island vibe. The menu features inventive small plates and craft cocktails infused with local botanicals and tropical flavors, ideal for sunset or a pre-dinner stop before dining downstairs at The Restaurant. Reservations are not accepted, so arriving early is recommended to secure the best ocean-view seats.

Humble Market Kitchin

Wailea Beach Resort – Island fusion by Roy Yamaguchi

Helmed by renowned Chef Roy Yamaguchi, this vibrant restaurant pays homage to his plantation-era roots through bold, island-inspired flavors that blend Japanese, Hawaiian, and Filipino influences. Expect polished yet relaxed service, sweeping ocean views, and a menu that highlights locally sourced ingredients prepared with Roy's signature sweet-and-savory balance. Perfect for sunset dining or a lively evening with friends.

★ Don't miss the Butterfish Misoyaki, a signature Roy Yamaguchi classic and one of Maui's most beloved dishes

Koast

Wailea - Modern coastal grill

A stylish open-air retaurant overlooking the Pacific, Koast offers a contemporary take on surf-and-turf dining with a focus on premium seafood, local produce, and island-inspired flavors. The atmosphere is chic yet relaxed, with ocean breezes, refined cocktails, and attentive service creating an effortless coastal dining experience.

★ Arrive before sunset to enjoy panoramic ocean views with your meal.

Lineage

Shops at Wailea – Contemporary Hawaiian shared plates

Led by Chef Mijin Kang Toride, Lineage celebrates the flavors of Hawai'i's diverse heritage through vibrant, family-style dishes meant for sharing. The menu blends island comfort food with refined technique, think crispy Korean fried chicken, adobo pork belly, poke, and house-made kimchi, all paired with playful tropical cocktails. The lively, modern setting and attentive service make it one of Wailea's most beloved local favorites.

★ Reserve early, this spot is a favorite among locals and our Concierge team alike.

Aurum

Shops at Wailea – Mediterranean-inspired modern dining

Bright, elegant, and effortlessly stylish, the dining experience brings the warmth of the Mediterranean coast to Wailea. The menu highlights fresh Maui-grown ingredients in dishes such as grilled octopus, handmade pastas, and seasonal risottos, paired with a curated wine and cocktail selection. The atmosphere feels refined yet relaxed — ideal for guests looking to dine beyond the resort while staying close to home.

★Order the grilled octopus or seasonal risotto, showcasing Mediterranean flair and local ingredients.

Monkeypod Kitchen

Casual, lively, local favorite

Chef Peter Merriman's farm-to-table hotspot captures the spirit of Maui with vibrant flavors and a fun, social atmosphere. The open-air space hums with energy as guests enjoy wood-fired pizzas, fresh fish tacos, and the island's most famous cocktail. the lilikoi foam mai tai. With live music, friendly service, and a menu built around locally sourced ingredients, Monkeypod is the go-to spot for easygoing evenings with friends or family.

★ Arrive early for Happy Hour (3:30–5:00 PM) it's one of the island's best, featuring discounted drinks and shareable bites.

Matteo's Osteria

Italian soul food, local favorite

Matteo's Osteria offers a warm, welcoming atmosphere and the kind of soulful Italian cooking that keeps both locals and visitors coming back. The menu features handmade pastas, crisp pizzette, and daily specials crafted from fresh island ingredients, all complemented by one of Maui's most thoughtfully curated wine lists. Genuine hospitality and intimate ambiance make it perfect for a relaxed yet refined evening.

★ Don't miss the truffle tagliatelle or the house-made burrata.

Tommy Bahama Restaurant & Bar

Island comfort & casual Luxury

Tommy Bahama offers an upscale yet relaxed escape in the heart of The Shops at Wailea. Surrounded by lush greenery and open-air seating, guests can enjoy signature island comfort dishes such as ahi tacos, coconut shrimp, and macadamia-nut crusted fish, paired with refreshing tropical cocktails. The atmosphere is effortlessly elegant, ideal for unwinding in style after a morning by the pool or a day of shopping.

Pint & Cork

Elevated comfort food & craft cocktails

Modern yet approachable, Pint & Cork offers a lively gastropub experience in the heart of The Shops at Wailea. The menu features elevated comfort food from truffle fries and ahi sliders to hearty burgers and shareable plates, all complemented by expertly crafted cocktails, local brews, and an upbeat atmosphere. It's a favorite among locals and visitors looking for something casual but refined.

★ One of the few spots in Wailea serving a late-night menu a perfect find for a relaxed bite or drink after 9 PM.

Gather on Maui

Modern Hawaiian with ocean views

Set along the Wailea Golf Club with panoramic ocean views, Gather on Maui captures the essence of island dining, bright, breezy, and rooted in local flavor. The menu celebrates Hawai'i's farms and fishermen through modern Hawaiian dishes that are fresh, colorful, and beautifully plated. With its relaxed sophistication and open-air setting, it's a natural choice for guests seeking a scenic, feel-good dining experience.

★ Arrive early for sunset cocktails, the golden-hour views over the Pacific are among the best in Wailea.

OAO Wailea

Contemporary Japanese dining

A stylish newcomer to Wailea's dining scene, OAO marries sleek, modern design with the craftsmanship of fine Japanese cuisine. The menu spotlights premium sushi, sashimi, and innovative rolls made with top-quality imported ingredients, alongside select grilled dishes and artful cocktails. Polished yet relaxed, the setting combines attentive service with understated elegance, a perfect balance of sophistication and island ease.

Miso Phat Sushi

Kihei – Local sushi bar

A beloved local favorite known for its ultra-fresh fish and unfussy charm. Miso Phat serves generous sashimi cuts, creative rolls, and classic sushi staples at the counter or casual tables. The vibe is lively but relaxed, perfect for guests seeking authentic Maui-style sushi without the frills. Reservations are not accepted, so plan to arrive early, it's first come, first served and often busy at peak hours.

★ Sit at the sushi counter and the day's freshest catch.

Spoon & Key Market

All-day neighborhood dining

One of our team's top recommendations in Wailea, Spoon & Key is an all-day favorite that balances easygoing neighborhood energy with chef-driven quality. Mornings are ideal for excellent breakfast sandwiches, açaí bowls, and lighter options, while afternoons are perfect for a casual bite. After 4:00 PM, their burger is widely considered one of the island's best, and dinner service elevates the experience further with refined, ingredient-driven cuisine by Chef Christopher Kulis (formerly of the Thomas Keller Restaurant Group), offered à la carte or as a tasting menu.

★ A great "repeat" spot for guests, easy for a relaxed daytime visit, yet polished enough for a memorable dinner without a formal resort setting.

Humuhumunukunukuāpua'a

Oceanfront Hawaiian

Set in a lagoon-front setting at the Grand Wailea, Humuhumunukunukuapua'a is one of South Maui's most scenic dining experiences, known for its open-air ambiance and a menu centered on fresh island seafood and Hawaii-inspired classics. The setting is the standout, especially at sunset, making it an excellent option for guests seeking a memorable "Maui night out," particularly when Mama's Fish House is unavailable.

★ Request an early evening reservation to catch golden hour and allow extra time for valet/arrival during peak dining periods.

KOMO Sushi

WEST MAUI & KAPALUA

Merriman's Kapalua

Fine dining, Hawaii regional cuisine

A true Maui icon, Merriman's Kapalua defines Hawaii Regional Cuisine with its breathtaking oceanfront setting and commitment to locally sourced ingredients. Chef Peter Merriman's pioneering farm-to-table philosophy shines through in every dish from line-caught fish and island-grown produce to perfectly executed meats and vibrant tropical accents. Elegant yet welcoming, this open-air restaurant offers sweeping views of Kapalua Bay and a dining experience that captures the spirit of aloha at its finest.

★ Reserve the earliest dinner seating to enjoy sunset over the bay and request a table on the lanai for the best view in Kapalua.

Havens Harborside Fish & Chophouse

Ma'alaea Harbor – Casual coastal grill

A new favorite along Ma'alaea Harbor, Havens Harborside blends laid-back coastal charm with bold island flavors. The menu features fresh local fish, perfectly grilled steaks, and inventive comfort dishes, all complemented by craft cocktails and friendly service. With its harbor views and relaxed atmosphere, it's a welcome stop for guests seeking quality dining without formality.

★ Perfect for a relaxed dinner after an afternoon of ocean activities in Ma'alaea.

Mala Ocean Tavern

Lahaina – Oceanfront local favorite

A beloved West Maui classic reborn, Māla Ocean Tavern continues to charm with its unbeatable oceanfront setting and vibrant, island-inspired fare. The menu blends fresh local fish and Mediterranean influences, paired with creative cocktails and friendly, upbeat service. Signature dishes like the Ahi Bruschetta, layered with generous slices of seared ahi over crisp toast, capture the restaurant's bold, flavorful style. The atmosphere is lively yet intimate, just steps from the water's edge.

★ Best at golden hour, with sunset views over the channel.

Star Noodle

Lahaina – Asian fusion & local creativity

A longtime Maui favorite, Star Noodle delivers bold, inventive flavors in a fun, casual setting. The menu celebrates Asian-inspired comfort food with local flair, from steaming bowls of noodles and playful share plates to modern interpretations of island classics. Expect lively energy, friendly service, and consistently delicious dishes that showcase both creativity and heart.

★ Don't miss the Ahi Avo and Garlic Noodles

UPCOUNTRY & HANA

Hali'imaile General Store

Hali'imaile - Hawaiian-American farm-to-table

An Upcountry Maui icon, Hali'imaile General Store by Chef Bev Gannon embodies the island's farm-to-table spirit with warmth and personality. Housed in a restored pineapple plantation building, the restaurant serves vibrant Hawaiian-American dishes that blend local produce with Asian and Southwestern influences, all colorful, flavorful, and deeply rooted in Maui's agricultural heritage. The setting is bright and welcoming, offering an authentic taste of Upcountry charm.

★ Pair lunch or dinner here with a visit to nearby MauiWine or the Ali'i Kula Lavender Farm for a perfect Upcountry day.

MauiWine

Ulupalakua – Vineyard & tasting experience

Set on the gentle slopes of Haleakalā in historic Ulupalakua, MauiWine offers a serene and scenic escape into the island's only winery. Guests can enjoy tastings of signature pineapple wines, estate-grown varietals, and sparkling rosé surrounded by rolling pastures and centuries-old trees. The experience blends rustic charm with refined hospitality, capturing the essence of Upcountry Maui. The tasting room and outdoor lanai provide stunning views of the countryside and coastline below — an ideal stop for wine lovers and explorers alike.

★ Visit midmorning or early afternoon before the fog rolls in, and don't miss the sparkling pineapple wine — it's uniquely Maui and perfect for gifting.

Kula Bistro

Kula - Casual Italian-American café

Beloved by locals for hearty breakfasts, paninis, and fresh pastas served in a cozy bistro setting. Excellent stop before or after Haleakalā.

Marlow

Makawao – Wood-fired Italian

Helmed by Chef Jeff Scheer, Marlow brings a modern Italian sensibility to Upcountry Maui with wood-fired pizzas, house-made pastas, and farm-driven ingredients sourced from nearby producers. The open kitchen and crackling pizza oven create an inviting, neighborhood feel, while the menu delivers refined flavor and craftsmanship in every dish. Warm, intimate, and effortlessly cool, Marlow has become one of Maui's most sought-after dining experiences.

★ Reserve well in advance, Marlow is one of Upcountry's hottest tables, especially for dinner and weekend brunch.

Makawao Public House

Local gastropub

A welcoming Upcountry hangout, Makawao Public House combines rustic charm with elevated comfort food and a laid-back, community feel. The menu features hearty local favorites, creative small plates, and craft cocktails, all served in a stylish space that feels both casual and polished. It's the kind of spot where locals linger and visitors instantly feel at home.

★ Stop in for dinner or drinks after your sunset drive down from Haleakalā.

Hāna Farms Roadside Restaurant

Hāna - Local Wood-Fired & Farm Café

A must-stop for guests exploring the Road to Hāna. Features pizzas, sandwiches, and fresh juices made with ingredients from their on-site farm.

★ Great lunch stop before Hāna Bay or Wai'ānapanapa. Try the lilikoi cheesecake.

Aunty Sandy's Banana Bread

Ke'anae - Iconic Roadside Stop

A quintessential Maui experience. Freshly baked banana bread sold warm from the oven on the Ke'anae Peninsula.

★ Bring cash and go early before it sells out.

NORTH SHORE, KAHULUI & WAILUKU

Mama's Fish House

Pā'ia – Iconic beachfront dining

A true Maui legend, Mama's Fish House defines destination dining with its unmatched oceanfront setting and spirit of aloha. Each dish highlights the day's catch, proudly listing the name of the fisherman and where it was caught, all presented in a Polynesian-inspired atmosphere of carved wood, tropical flowers, and gentle sea breezes. Refined yet soulful, every detail, from the hospitality to the plating, reflects decades of care and tradition.

★ Reservations fill months in advance, especially during high season.

Paia Fish Market

Pā'ia and Kihei – Casual local favorite

A Maui institution since 1989, Pā'ia Fish Market serves up fresh, no-frills island fare in a lively, casual setting. Guests can expect generous portions of grilled fish, burgers, and tacos made to order, all showcasing the island's daily catch. With its picnic-style tables, quick counter service, and bustling local energy, it's the perfect spot to experience authentic Maui flavor without the fuss.

★ The blackened mahi tacos are a local favorite.

nyloS

Pā'ia – Intimate chef's tasting experience

Tucked away in the surf town of Pā'ia, Nylos offers one of Maui's most exclusive and creative dining experiences. Chef-owners Jeremy and Paulina create an ever-changing tasting menu that highlights Maui's seasonal ingredients through a minimalist, modern lens. With just a handful of tables and an open kitchen, every course feels personal and deliberate — equal parts art, flavor, and storytelling. Elegant plating, thoughtful wine pairings, and warm hospitality make Nylos a true hidden gem for discerning diners.

★ Reservations are essential — seating is limited to only a few guests per evening. Perfect for culinary enthusiasts.

Flatbread Company

Pā'ia – Organic wood-fired pizza

A lively community gathering spot in the heart of Pā'ia, Flatbread Company is loved for its organic, wood-fired pizzas topped with locally sourced ingredients. The open-flame oven sits at the center of the dining room, and fills the space with warmth and the aroma of freshly baked flatbreads. Friendly service, casual energy, and a commitment to sustainability make it a family-friendly favorite for both locals and visitors. Reservations are not accepted, so expect a short wait during peak hours.

★ Order the Mopsy Kalua Pork flatbread, it`s smoky, sweet, and unmistakably Maui.

Wood-fired Pizza at Ferraro's

Artful Nigiri at KOMO

Nuka

Haiku – Japanese sushi & izakaya

A hidden gem in Hā'iku, Nuka is a beloved local favorite known for its pristine sushi, creative rolls, and authentic izakaya-style small plates. The minimalist design and warm, intimate atmosphere let the food shine, every dish reflects precision, balance, and freshness that rivals Japan's best. It's a true destination for sushi lovers and well worth the short drive from Pā'ia.

★ Nuka does not take reservations, arrive early to secure a table, especially for dinner. The spicy tuna roll and miso butterfish are guest favorites.

Bistro Casanova

Kahului – Italian & Mediterranean cuisine

A longtime local favorite near the airport, Bistro Casanova offers a refined yet approachable take on Italian and Mediterranean classics. The menu features handmade pastas, fresh seafood, and grilled meats, paired with craft cocktails and a well-curated wine list. The ambiance is warm and lively, with indoor and outdoor seating that's perfect for a relaxed lunch or an elegant pre-flight dinner.

★ Ideal for guests arriving or departing Maui. just minutes from the airport. Try the seafood linguine or the paella for two, both local favorites.

Tiffany's

Wailuku – Modern Asian & local plates

A true local favorite reborn under Chef Sheldon Simeon of Top Chef fame, Tiffany's celebrates Hawai'i's comfort food with heart and flavor. The menu highlights bold, home-style dishes, garlic noodles, fried rice, seared ahi, and crispy pork belly, all elevated with Sheldon's signature touch. The atmosphere is lively and down-to-earth, offering guests an authentic taste of everyday Maui dining beyond the resort scene.

★ A genuine local hangout, casual, flavorful, and full of character.

My Thai Maui

Kahului - Thai Cuisine

A casual, no-frills spot in Central Maui serving vibrant, flavorful Thai dishes made with fresh herbs and bold spices. The menu features all the classics, from green curry and pad thai to tom yum soup and spicy stir-fries, offering comforting, authentic flavors at reasonable prices. While the food quality is consistently strong, service can be uneven, so it's best suited for takeout or a quick, low-key meal rather than a full dining experience.

★ Great option for flavorful takeout before heading back to Wailea

Fuego Argentinean Steakhouse

Wailuku | South American-Inspired Steakhouse

Smoky, bold, and full of character, Fuego brings the flavors of Argentina to Maui with perfectly grilled meats, rich chimichurri, and hearty sides infused with island ingredients. The ambiance is warm and rustic, featuring an open grill, attentive service, and generous portions that make every meal feel celebratory. It's a great option for guests craving a hearty, flavorful dinner away from the resort scene.

★ Ideal for meat lovers looking to explore beyond Wailea. The ribeye and empanadas are standout favorites.

COFFEE & CAFÉS

Akamai Coffee
Wailea, Kihei & Kahului - Local Roaster

Proudly serving 100% Maui coffee, Akamai is a locally owned roaster known for smooth, flavorful brews and genuine island hospitality. The Wailea location offers a full brunch menu with breakfast favorites and pastries, while the Kihei café focuses on expertly crafted espresso drinks and light grab and go options. Each cup reflects the spirit of Maui, local, simple, and full of aloha.

★ Wailea is perfect for a relaxed brunch, while Kihei and Kahului are ideal for a quick morning coffee stop.

Kraken Coffee
Wailea, Kihei, & Kahului - Espresso Bar

A local favorite for strong, flavorful coffee on the go, Kraken Coffee delivers quick service without compromising quality. Known for bold espresso, creamy lattes, and creative cold brews, it's the perfect stop before an early island adventure or morning flight. Friendly baristas and consistent drinks make it a reliable pick-me-up any time of day.

Momona Bakery and Coffee Shop
Artisanal coffee house

Warm, inviting, and full of local charm, Momona Coffee combines the creativity of Maui's art scene with the craft of small-batch roasting. The café features thoughtfully brewed espresso drinks, pour-overs, and seasonal specials made with locally sourced ingredients. Its cozy atmosphere and rotating local art displays make it a perfect spot to slow down and savor a morning in Maui.

Wailuku Coffee Company
Wailuku | Local café

A community hub in the heart of historic Wailuku, Wailuku Coffee Company is known for its welcoming atmosphere, excellent espresso, and hearty breakfast and lunch options. The café serves locally roasted coffee alongside fresh pastries, sandwiches, and daily specials, making it a favorite stop for locals and visitors exploring Upcountry or Central Maui. The space has an eclectic, artsy vibe with local artwork and friendly service that captures the charm of old-town Wailuku.

★ Stop in before heading to Iao Valley or on your way Upcountry. The breakfast burrito and iced vanilla latte are local favorites.

Malia Coffee Co.
Hāli'imaile - Boutique local café

This coffee joint is effortlessly stylish, Malia Coffee Co. brings a refined coffee experience to Upcountry with smooth espresso, locally roasted beans, and a calm, coastal atmosphere. The café focuses on quality and precision, offering beautifully crafted lattes, cold brews, and seasonal specialties that appeal to both coffee aficionados and casual sippers. It is a peaceful stop for a morning ritual or an afternoon recharge.

Morning Coffee on your Lanai

★ Order the iced matcha on a upcountry exploration day in Maui in front of the Pinneaple tour . It is refreshing, balanced, and beautifully presented.

Maui Coffee Roasters

Kahului - Heritage roaster

Serving Maui since 1982, Maui Coffee Roasters is a longtime favorite for serious coffee enthusiasts. The café and roastery specialize in freshly roasted Maui-grown beans and expertly crafted espresso drinks, complemented by a selection of breakfast and lunch items in a friendly, laid-back setting. The aroma of roasting coffee fills the air, offering an authentic glimpse into Maui's local coffee culture.

★ Pick up a bag of Maui Mokka beans as a signature gift or a perfect taste of the island to take home.

Da Green Coffee & Belle Coffee

Kihei - Community Favorites

Two beloved Kihei cafés known for their relaxed atmosphere, friendly service, and quality brews. Da Green Coffee offers a cozy, surfer-inspired vibe with excellent espresso drinks and fresh pastries, while Belle Coffee pairs smooth, locally roasted coffee with light breakfast fare and a bright, beachy setting. Both are ideal for an easy morning stop before exploring the island.

★ Perfect for a quick breakfast and coffee before starting the Road to Hana drive or a day of South Maui adventures.

Café Mambo

Pā'ia - Café & brunch spot

Colorful, lively, and full of charm, Café Mambo sits at the heart of Pā'ia's bohemian main street. The menu blends island freshness with Mediterranean flair, featuring wholesome breakfasts, tropical smoothies, and vibrant salads alongside heartier dishes like burgers and their signature Honey Soy Glazed Duck. The open-air setting and friendly service make it perfect for casual brunch or laid-back people-watching in this quintessential North Shore town.

★ Order the Honey Soy Glazed Duck or a fresh fruit smoothie

Cafe O'Lei

Kihei - Local Lunch & Seafood

A dependable spot for fresh fish sandwiches, poke bowls, and generous salads. Consistently good, simple, and family-friendly.

★ Excellent for a quick lunch between beach outings or before airport departure.

Café des Amis

Pā'ia | French-Mediterranean Café

A charming and relaxed spot in the center of Pā'ia, Café des Amis is known for its savory and sweet crêpes, fresh wraps, and Mediterranean-inspired flavors. The courtyard seating offers a cozy escape from the bustle of the street, making it an inviting place to linger over lunch or a smoothie. With its blend of French simplicity and island charm, it remains a North Shore favorite for both locals and visitors.

★ A lovely choice for a light lunch between shopping stops in Pā'ia. The curry chicken wrap and banana Nutella crêpe are guest favorites.

Vida by Sip Me Maui

Makawao - Coffee & light fare

A bright and welcoming café in the heart of Makawao, Vida by Sip Me Maui serves expertly crafted espresso drinks, fresh pastries, and wholesome light bites in a relaxed Upcountry setting. The airy interior and calm energy make it a perfect place to slow down and enjoy the cool mountain breeze before exploring the area's farms and galleries.

★ Stop here for coffee and a light breakfast before visiting the lavender farm or heading up Haleakalā for the day.

Breakfast Spread via In-Room Dining

Leoda's Kitchen and Pie Shop

Olowalu | Café & bakery

A nostalgic roadside favorite between Lahaina and the central valley, Leoda's is celebrated for its homestyle comfort food and famous pies. The cozy café serves hearty sandwiches, fresh salads, and daily specials made with local ingredients, but the real draw is the dessert case filled with banana cream, chocolate haupia, and coconut cream pies. Warm hospitality and a touch of old Hawai'i charm make it a must-stop on the drive west.

★ Pick up a few mini pies to go for a sweet treat back at the resort. The banana cream and chocolate haupia are local legends.

Belle Surf Café

Pā'ia - Coffee & Brunch Café

A bright and stylish café in the heart of Pā'ia, Belle Surf Café combines European café culture with Maui's relaxed beach-town spirit. The menu features locally roasted coffee, fresh smoothies, and wholesome brunch options such as avocado toast, crêpes, and açai bowls, all beautifully presented. The setting is cozy and chic, with open-air seating perfect for people-watching before a day exploring the North Shore.

★ Try the iced latte with coconut milk and one of their signature crêpes for a light, satisfying start to your morning in Pā'ia.

FOOD FOR ROAD TRIPS

Ichiban Okazuya

Wailuku – Local Japanese Plate Lunch

A humble, takeout-only favorite in Wailuku, this local institution is known for generous portions, homestyle flavors, and great value. The menu focuses on Japanese-inspired plate lunches such as teriyaki beef, chicken katsu, miso butterfish, and shrimp tempura, all served with rice and mac salad. Everything is made to order, fresh and fast.

★ Strictly takeout and cash only, arrive off hours or patience with the line. The miso butterfish and chicken katsu are one of Maui's best-kept comfort food secrets.

Tin Roof

Kahului – Grab & go local eats

Chef Sheldon Simeon's beloved lunch spot brings bold, soulful Hawaiian comfort food to a casual takeout setting. The menu features local favorites like mochiko chicken, poke bowls, garlic noodles, and pork belly, all crafted with chef-driven precision and local ingredients. Portions are hearty, flavors are authentic, and the atmosphere is pure Maui: unfussy, welcoming, and full of aloha.

★ Order ahead online, lines move quickly but can get long during lunch hours. Perfect for a flavorful bite before your flight or a day exploring the island.