INDONESIA

Bali, Twice the Magic - from the ocean to the river valley

Four Seasons Resort Bali
AT JIMBARAN BAY

Experience Indonesia’s vibrant pulse and rich heritage at Four Seasons Resort Bali at Jimbaran Bay: an all villa beach retreat alive with tradition and innovation.

Regain your equilibrium at the reinvented Healing Village Spa with light, sound, thermal and colour therapy alongside traditional Balinese rituals, or hone new culinary skills at the Cooking Academy and Telu cocktail garden. Soak up the resort's magical sunsets with a beachfront BBQ and sustainable cocktails at Sundara, or chase the sun across the Bay with a private Champagne Cruise.

Active and cultural experiences include surf lessons and kayaking, ocean-sprayed blessings by the resort priest, and on-site tours of the iconic temple, shrines, claypot-aged arak cellar and botanical-style gardens.

Why our guests love it:

- Beachfront location in Jimbaran Bay - Bali's historic fishing village - with a tranquil vibe and magical sunsets, direct access to 3-mile beach, and complimentary water sports.
- 156 contemporary villas, gracefully Balinese in style and each featuring a private pool and courtyard garden.
- Immersive, transformative treatments at the Healing Village Spa, a 2,000 square metre wellness portal seemingly suspended above water, with 10 all-suite treatment rooms, yoga studio, state-of-the-art gym and Rossano Ferretti Hair Spa.
- Sunset BBQs, global cuisine, Balinese cooking classes, and sustainable cocktail workshops
- Diverse activities including cycling tours along the coastal cliffs, canyoning and waterfall treks, mud wrestling and other family excursions, and a private tour of a 9th century cave temple with resort priest Ajik Ngurah.

Four Seasons Resort Bali
AT SAYAN

Arrive at Four Seasons Resort Bali at Sayan via a dramatic treetop bridge, or experience the world's first hotel arrival by river raft and float down the Ayung River valley.

The gravity-defying rooftop lotus pond descends through an enchanting forest that cocoons just 60 suites and villas. Each step reveals a new layer of beauty from the open-air Lobby, restaurants and Spa to the two-tiered swimming pool cantilevered over the river.

Retreat to The Sacred River Spa and restore the subtle inner energies with. Release technology-induced stresses with yoga, meditation and the other-worldly Sacred Nap surrounded by ricefields. Savour an authentic Balinese Chef's Table dinner or global cuisine by the river, and soak up the absolute privacy of your pool villa immersed in nature.

Why our guests love it:

- The arrival experience, floating above the treetops and crossing the suspension bridge into a different world, secluded in the ethereal embrace of the Ayung River Valley.
- Authentic Balinese dining with Head Chef Suta, Sokasi cooking school, chef-guided picnic adventures and breathtaking venues for private dining amid the wilderness.
- The Sacred River Spa's Chakra Ceremonies and river stone massages, and extensive wellness program led by former Buddhist nun, Ibu Fera.
- Curated cultural and nature excursions such as the Sayan Valley Biathlon, cycling and trekking, 'Can Your Keep A Secret?' water temple tour, and A Day In The Life of a Balinese Farmer.
- The Four Seasons Private Rafting experience down Bali's longest river, with a landing directly on the banks of the resort's Riverside Pool.

MALAYSIA

Langkawi, a gem nestled between ancient rainforests and a mile-long white sandy beach

Flanked by a tropical rainforest, limestone cliffs and the emerald waters of the Andaman Sea, the natural beauty on our Island of Legends is as dramatic as it is serene.

Tucked away within an UNESCO World Geopark, our pavilions and villas offer both quiet, romantic havens for lovebirds as well as versatile family-oriented retreats. Wake up with a morning swim in your plunge pool before enjoying breakfast on the deck, then head out to explore the mysterious mangrove forests, winding rivers and ancient sea stacks that create our unique landscape. Find some natural balance at The Geo Spa, then sit down for the most authentic Malay cuisine at Ikan-Ikan before toasting the spectacular, jewel-tone sunset with a cocktail at Rhu Bar.

Why our guests love it:

- A Place to Breathe - 48 acres of private space is stretched over one mile of white sand beach with lush greenery to inspire physical, emotional and spiritual wellness.
- A Place to Live - a safe and secluded retreat for guests to experience Malay-style pavilions and pool villas wrapped in nature's abundance. With one to five bedroom beach villas and thoughtfully personalized Four Seasons care and Malaysian hospitality to create memories for multi-generational families, couples and friends.
- A Place to Explore - a haven of sustainability and creature comforts where nature's finest creations come alive through our authentic interactions in our signature Mangroves and Eagles Safari and Rumah Ikan Fish House experiences
- A Place to Connect/Celebrate - renew meaningful connections and discover reasons to celebrate with our Resort's dining spaces that offer unique dining experiences, event spaces and adventure-filled activities for travelers of all ages.

MALDIVES

The world's lowest-lying nation, the islands of the Maldives glisten like strings of pearls in 90,000 square kilometres of ocean.

Four Seasons Resort Maldives
AT KUDA HURAA

Step into the charm of a Maldivian village at Four Seasons Resort Maldives at Kuda Huraa, an enchanting garden island where chic contemporary design meets ocean-inspired adventure and connection.

Thatched accommodations flank a central promenade, from refreshed Sunrise and Sunset Beach Villas with private pools and sleek interiors to bold over-ocean Water Villas where you can slip straight into the lagoon. Families and friends can retreat to the new Three-Bedroom Kuda Estate, a private sanctuary with sweeping pool, beachfront and generous living spaces.

Explore up to 30 coral-filled dive sites within a 45-minute sail, snorkel with sharks or cruise into the sunset on a flotilla of luxury yachts. Learn to surf in the lagoon with Tropicsurf coaches or follow the pros at the annual Surfing Champions Trophy, known as “Where Champs Come to Surf,” before boarding a seaplane ‘surfari’ to ride world-class breaks across awe-inspiring atolls.

Join the Resort’s marine biologists to care for hatchlings in the turtle pools or sign up for the Junior Marine Savers programme. Snorkel the Coral Trail, be escorted through the waves by schools of dolphins, then restore body and mind at ŪRJĀ Naturopathy Island. Rooted in the healing science of nature, ŪRJĀ offers personalised programmes that unite yoga therapy, naturopathy, hydrotherapy, and nutrition to cultivate vitality and balance. Each treatment draws from the natural elements of sun, sea, air, and earth to harmonise energy and renew the spirit.

Why our guests love it:

- The serene dhoni ride across the lagoon to ŪRJĀ Naturopathy Island, where ocean air, ancient wisdom, and modern science flow as one.
- Thrilling luxury surf experiences with Tropicsurf, from lagoon lessons to the Surfing Champions Trophy and a seaplane ‘surfari’ to remote reef breaks.
- The award-winning Indian cuisine at Baraabaru, recognised as one of the Maldives’ most celebrated dining experiences.
- The Marine Discovery Centre, where guests can meet turtles and join the Junior Marine Savers programme.
- The sunset-facing Serenity Pool at Reef Club, alongside SUP Yoga, Jetblades and exceptional diving through coral-filled caves, drop-offs and manta-rich waters.

Four Seasons Resort Maldives
AT LANDAA GIRAAVARU

Embark on a journey of discovery and wellbeing at Four Seasons Resort Maldives at Landaa Giraavaru, a visionary island sanctuary where pioneering conservation meets extraordinary connection.

Through steps-from-the-sea accommodations, pioneering marine projects and a Resort-wide Planetary Wellbeing concept, Landaa celebrates the harmony between man and nature in the Baa Atoll UNESCO Biosphere Reserve.

Inspire a deeper connection between people and planet at AyurMa, where 15 years of health-focused innovation now embraces longevity diagnostics, yoga therapy and a conscious call to care. Cycle lush jungle paths to the Olympic-size pool, plant new coral reefs with marine biologists, or help the Manta Trust scientists track the world's largest known population of reef manta rays. Families and groups seeking seclusion can retreat to the Four Bedroom Landaa Estate, the island's largest hideaway with expansive pool, beachfront and generous living spaces.

From inspiring daily gratitude rituals to once-in-a-lifetime encounters with whale sharks and mantas, and from learning Maldivian craft traditions to exploring the ancient wisdom of Ayurveda, every day at Landaa is an invitation to live more deeply, naturally and meaningfully.

Why our guests love it:

- The iconic Blu Beach, with its meandering sand spit and two-kilometre lagoon, unfolds beside Blu Beach Club, an all-day hangout where Italian favourites meet spectacular sunsets.
- AyurMa, a one-of-a-kind wellbeing haven where Ayurvedic doctors, naturopaths and yoga therapists guide guests on pathways to health, clarity and longevity.
- Impromptu Manta On Call snorkelling adventures and bucket-list encounters with manta rays and whale sharks at Hanifaru Bay.
- A culinary collaboration with two-Michelin-starred Nino Di Costanzo, where Italian artistry meets Maldivian soul.
- A Planetary Wellbeing concept that spans coral propagation, solar innovation, community outreach and EarthCheck-certified accountability.

Four Seasons Private Island
MALDIVES AT VOAVAH

Four Seasons Maldives Private Island at Voavah is the world's first exclusive-use UNESCO hideaway. A seven-bedroom sanctuary in the Baa Atoll Biosphere Reserve, it offers limitless island living for up to 22 guests, or even just one. It is a private stage to retreat, explore, connect and celebrate in complete freedom.

Days unfold around the double-storey Beach House, pristine lagoon and powder-white sands. Dive with reef sharks and turtles in crystalline waters or align with life's natural rhythms at The Ocean of Consciousness Spa, where sound healing, energy therapies and ocean-view rituals restore body and mind. Celebrate with moonlit banquets, pool parties or sashimi served fresh from the sea.

With total run of the island, plus world-class chefs, entertainers and your own luxury yacht, Voavah becomes a canvas for limitless expression. Exchange vows on a sandbank, explore hidden reefs with marine biologists, swim with mantas at Hanifaru Bay, or simply enjoy uninterrupted time with loved ones, or entirely alone, in the most exclusive setting imaginable.

Why our guests love it:

- Complete freedom to design each stay, from dining and wellness to celebrations, adventures and beyond.
- Absolute privacy with an entire island reserved for weddings, retreats, multi-generational gatherings or even a solo escape.
- Voavah Summer, the 19-metre luxury yacht, opens the UNESCO Biosphere Reserve for manta ray encounters at Hanifaru Bay, whale shark expeditions, dolphin cruises and sandbank escapes.
- A pristine setting where dolphins, rays and turtles glide so close you can watch them from the beach.
- The Ocean of Consciousness Spa with round-the-clock access to energy healing, yoga, gym, pools and a PADI 5-Star Dive Centre.

PALAU

An oceanic wonderland, Palau rises from the Pacific with jungle-clad limestone isles and the UNESCO-listed Rock Islands, where ancient traditions meet thriving marine sanctuaries.

Four Seasons Palau

FOUR SEASONS EXPLORER

Discover the world’s most pristine waters aboard Four Seasons Explorer Palau, a luxury floating resort that unlocks one of the planet’s last great frontiers. With just 10 staterooms and the expansive Explorer Suite, it is an intimate base for voyaging through the emerald lagoons and limestone islands of this UNESCO World Heritage paradise.

Days bring endless adventures, from diving dramatic drop-offs and WWII wrecks to snorkelling with swirling shoals of fish and giant clams in dazzling blue shallows. Kayak through hidden mangrove tunnels, trek to jungle waterfalls or visit ancient bai meeting houses where Palauan traditions endure. Between excursions, unwind on deck with panoramic views, dine on island-fresh flavours, or watch the sunset set the horizon alight.

With every detail cared for by a passionate crew and expert marine biologists, each journey becomes a story of connection to ocean and culture. Whether exploring with loved ones, joining new friends or chartering the entire vessel, Four Seasons Explorer Palau offers the rare chance to experience one of the world’s most remote and untouched destinations in comfort and style.

Why our guests love it:

- One of the Seven Underwater Wonders of the World, Palau boasts 500,000 square kilometres of protected marine territory – the largest percentage of any nation. Home to more than 1,400 fish species, diverse corals, and giant clams, as well as sharks, mantas, dolphins and whales, Palau’s aquatic wonderland captivates the imagination.
- Access to some of the world’s richest marine biodiversity, from Blue Corner to Jellyfish Lake and the Rock Islands Southern Lagoon UNESCO site.
- The intimacy of a floating resort with just 10 staterooms and an Explorer Suite, designed for comfort and adventure.
- Immersive cultural moments including island village visits, storytelling and traditional Palauan crafts.
- A seamless blend of expedition spirit and Four Seasons service, with fine dining, wellness rituals and effortless luxury on the water.

THAILAND

*From the bamboo jungles and verdant rice fields of the North, to the white sand beaches
of the South.*

Four Seasons Resort
CHIANG MAI

Where Northern Thailand inspires balance and connection.

Nestled in the emerald rice fields of Mae Rim valley, just 30 minutes from the city, Four Seasons Resort Chiang Mai is a sanctuary of slow living, cultural immersion, and holistic wellbeing. Designed by Bill Bensley to reflect a traditional Northern Thai village, the resort unfolds in layers — from panoramic views of misty mountains to tranquil ponds, lush gardens, and terraced paddies.

For over 30 years, the resort has led the way in Northern Thailand, offering guests a transformative connection to the Lanna way of life through immersive craft and cultural experiences, award-winning wellness at Wara Cheewa Spa, and dining that celebrates both local flavours and global cuisines. Awarded the prestigious Michelin 3 Keys, Four Seasons Chiang Mai stands apart as the only countryside retreat in its competitive set — where heartfelt Lanna hospitality, community ties, and nature's abundance come together to create meaningful moments.

Here, life moves at a slower pace — not to give less, but to offer more: more balance, more connection, and more lasting memories.

Why our guests love it:

- A Countryside Sanctuary – Nestled in the Mae Rim valley, the resort is the only countryside retreat in Chiang Mai, with sweeping views of rice paddies and misty mountains. Lanna-style pavilions, private pool villas, and spacious residences offer intimacy and privacy for couples, families, and groups.
- Immersive Culture – At Chaan Baan, guests connect with Chiang Mai's heritage through rice planting, pottery, tie-dye crafts, and caring for the resident water buffaloes. Local artisans, farmers, and staff proudly share traditions that create authentic cultural moments.
- Wellbeing in Balance – Guided by five pillars of wellness, the Wara Cheewa Spa and resident experts offer everything from yoga, pilates, Muay Thai, and biking to crystal sound healing, Reiki on quartz, and ancient Thai therapies. Each journey is tailored for physical, mental, and spiritual renewal.
- A Culinary Journey – Dining celebrates the richness of the region with Thai, Laotian, Burmese, and Western flavours. Michelin-recognized Khao, fire-grilled dining at North, hands-on experiences at Rim Tai Kitchen, and private dining at the Rice Barn make every meal memorable.
- Celebrations with Meaning – Designed with feng shui harmony, the resort is an idyllic setting for weddings, family reunions, honeymoons, and group retreats. Every occasion is elevated by heartfelt Lanna hospitality and breathtaking natural surroundings.

Four Seasons Resort
KOH SAMUI

Set on a secluded bay along Koh Samui’s northwestern tip, Four Seasons Resort Koh Samui is a hillside sanctuary where palm-fringed beaches meet the azure waters of the Gulf of Thailand.

Designed by Bill Bensley, the villas and residences feature tropical décor with Southern Thai influences, each offering a private infinity pool and panoramic views across the Gulf. Here, barefoot luxury flows with the rhythm of Thailand's island life. Guests can unwind with nature-immersive treatments at the Secret Garden Spa, drawing on Thai healing traditions, embrace balance with sunrise yoga, or discover strength in a Muay Thai session at the resort's scenic hilltop ring. Days drift easily between sandy beaches, private decks, and sunset cocktails at CoCoRum, home to Asia's only Rum Vault. For couples, families, and groups alike, the resort offers a complete island world where wellbeing, culture, and connection come together in perfect harmony.

- Why our guests love it:
- Breathtaking Arrival – Perched high above the Gulf of Thailand, arrival begins at a hilltop sala with sweeping views of sea and sky. Villas cascade down the jungle-cloaked hillside, each moment revealing a new perspective of the island.
 - All-Pool Villa Living – Each of the 60 villas and residences features a private infinity pool, outdoor living spaces, and panoramic views. Expansive residences with personal butlers are perfect for couples, groups, and multi-generational families.
 - Island Flavours – Dining celebrates Southern Thai spirit and global influences: Michelin-recognized KOH Thai Kitchen, fresh grills at Pla Pla, and rum-inspired cocktails at CoCoRum, home to Asia's only Rum Vault. Private dining ranges from barefoot barbecues on the sand to starlit feasts in your villa.
 - Wellbeing, Naturally – At The Secret Garden Spa, wellness rituals draw on Thailand's ancient Tard Chao Ruan philosophy, aligning Earth, Water, Wind, and Fire. Sound baths, Muay Thai at the scenic hilltop ring, and sunrise yoga above the treetops create a rhythm of renewal.
 - Complete Island World – From non-motorized water sports, yacht cruises, and family adventures with Kids For All Seasons, to sustainability initiatives like the Coral Conservation Project, every detail inspires connection—to the land, the sea, and each other.

Four Seasons Tented Camp
GOLDEN TRIANGLE

A Magical Escape in Tented Camp Luxury

Tucked away in the historic Golden Triangle, where Thailand meets Myanmar and Laos, Four Seasons Tented Camp Golden Triangle is a once-in-a-lifetime journey into nature, culture, and adventure. With just a handful of luxury tents and bespoke all-inclusive experiences, the camp offers guests the chance to step off the grid without giving up comfort.

Here, you can skim across the Ruak River in a longtail boat, interact with rescued elephants, or hike through bamboo jungles and mountain trails. At day's end, unwind with nature-inspired spa rituals in open-air salas, or raise a glass to the sunset at Burma Bar overlooking the river.

With every experience thoughtfully designed, the camp blends adventure, discovery, and Four Seasons hospitality into a rhythm that feels both intimate and extraordinary.

Why our guests love it:

- Arrival with Awe – Skimming across the Ruak River in a longtail boat, guests are immersed in the beauty of the Golden Triangle from the very first moment.
- Flavours of Three Nations – Nong Yao Restaurant celebrates Thai, Laotian, and Burmese cuisine, while signature sundowners at Burma Bar capture the magic of each evening.
- Dining with a Difference – From Kanthok dinners and riverside barbecues to picnics in style, wine cellar feasts, or becoming a Thai chef, dining is always an experience to remember.
- Adventures in Nature – Guided jungle hikes, Land Rover safaris, hillside bike tours, and cultural excursions to Chiang Rai's temples bring the region's spirit and scenery vividly to life.
- Local Traditions – Learn bamboo fishing with local villagers, a craft passed down over centuries, or explore nearby border towns with camp hosts.
- Wellness in the Wild – At the jungle-fringed Spa, ancient Thai rituals combine with mountain botanicals. Signature treatments like Ruak Bamboo Massage, Royal Recovery, and the Rose Crystal Lymphatic Facial restore balance and wellbeing — in nature or in the privacy of your tent.
- Elephant Encounters – Meet and observe rescued elephants in their natural habitat, guided by experts who share the stories and traditions of these gentle giants.
