CREATE YOUR OWN FAIRYTALE IN PRAGUE

In the heart of vibrant Old Town, a peaceful enclave at the river's edge

PRAGUE'S MOST COVETED VIEW

---

From Four Seasons, your view spans the Vltava River, the Charles Bridge and Prague Castle on the hilltop

A CITY MADE FOR EXPLORING

Like a fairytale come to life, Prague is rich in beauty and history. The “city of a hundred spires” mixes Gothic, Romanesque, Baroque and Art Nouveau architecture, creating a dazzling destination that’s perfect for a romantic getaway or a family vacation – whether summer or winter. Let Four Seasons fill your days with music, art and adventure, connecting you to the most authentic Prague – granting rare insider access and crafting one-of-a-kind personal experiences.

Boasting Prague's perfect Old Town location, Four Seasons rises at the edge of the Vltava River, steps from the Charles Bridge, with a postcard view of Prague Castle. Four historic eras are represented by the Hotel's buildings: Baroque (1568), Neo-Classical (1827), Renaissance (1883) and Modern (2001). Staying here lets you experience centuries of Czech history, enhanced by warm, thoughtful Four Seasons service.

A scenic view of a canal in Venice. In the foreground, a classic wooden boat with a dark blue hull and a light brown upper section is docked at a wooden pier. Two women with long dark hair are seated in the boat, facing away from the camera. They are holding glasses of sparkling wine. A man in a white captain's uniform is seated at the front of the boat, pointing towards the canal. The boat has a small Italian flag on the back. In the background, a stone bridge with a statue on top spans the canal. Lush green trees line the banks of the canal, and a building is visible on the right. The sky is clear and blue.
