A night-time photograph of a New Year's Eve celebration. In the center, a large, illuminated sign reads "HAPPY NEW YEAR" in a serif font, with a thin white arch over the word "HAPPY". The sign is positioned behind a low, rustic stone wall. Four large, bright bursts of fireworks are exploding upwards from the wall, creating a dramatic display of light and sparks. In the foreground, the silhouettes of a crowd of people are visible, many holding up their phones to capture the moment. The background features a building with large, light-colored concrete pillars and a dark interior. The overall atmosphere is festive and celebratory.

A SUSTAINABLE VISION: RANCHO LOLA

At Four Seasons Resort Tamarindo, México, upholding an unwavering commitment to sustainability, culinary excellence, and cultural preservation is woven into our fabric, offering guests a unique opportunity to savor the essence of Mexico's vibrant heritage in an environmentally conscious manner.

Central to this commitment is Rancho Lola, a low-impact sustainable farm located just a short golf ride from the resort. Here, guests are invited to reconnect with the origins of indigenous ingredients native to the region, fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation for the distinct flavors of Mexico. Nestled within our secluded 3,000-acre private nature reserve, this newly redesigned farm will be the heart of the holiday season at Tamarindo, inviting guests to take part in immersive experiences inspired by the richness of the natural landscape that surrounds. Rancho Lola stands as a testament to Four Seasons Resort Tamarindo's commitment to sustainability, providing a deep connection to Mexico's vibrant culinary heritage.

Embracing a vision where our chefs transcend the confines of the kitchen, Rancho Lola is a showcase of our dedication to minimizing our impact on the Reserve while allowing guests the chance to experience and savour the finest regional and locally grown ingredients. It's a sanctuary where culinary experiences are elevated by a deep respect for the land, and where we invite guests to relish in the beauty and bounty of Mexico's natural landscape and Four Seasons Resort Tamarindo's approach to sustainable travel.

AT FOUR SEASONS RESORT TAMARINDO

TRADITIONAL TEMAZCAL CEREMONY

DEC 26, 28 & JAN 2 | 12:30 PM

For centuries, pre-Hispanic cultures in Mexico have used the temazcal, or “house of heat,” as a ritual bath for spiritual cleansing. As we usher in a new year, transformation becomes inevitable and we invite you to try a cleansing temazcal ceremony, led by a Shaman, that will release old energy and make space for what is ahead.

We invite all guests to embark on this unique and traditional cultural experience of self-connection in our authentic Temazcal.
