Exclusively for Four Seasons guests, our full-service Ski Concierge team is located in a three-story, chalet-style building near the base of Gondola One. It's a six- to eight-minute walk from the Resort, or take one of our Mercedes-Benz SUVs or shuttles, running regularly.

The Ski Concierge staff is ready to provide maps and weather reports, and arrange equipment rentals from Gorsuch, our exclusive rental provider.

You can be fitted and measured for ski or snowboard rentals in the convenience of the Resort's main building, then your gear will be ready in your private locker upon arrival at the Ski Concierge building. You never need to carry your skis and poles. Our Ski Concierge will assist you every step of the way – even helping with putting on and taking off boots!

At the end of the day, come back to the Ski Concierge building for complimentary cookies, coffee, espresso and hot chocolate.

Take the Eagle Bahn Gondola to the top of Vail Mountain to the legendary Adventure Ridge, a snow park the size of a football stadium. Discover a wide variety of activities – with convenient passes available to purchase in advance.

TUBING

Climb aboard inflated tubes for an incredible ride. The multi-lane tubing hill whisks you downhill, while the easy-access surface lift takes you back up quickly for another ride.

SNOWSHOEING

The Nature Discovery Center offers guided snowshoe tours with an expert naturalist, helping you spot all things wild – from animal tracks to the mountain pine beetle.

SNOW THRILLS

Kids can cruise around Blizzard Speedway in specially crafted mini-snowmobiles. Or they can try snow biking – part bike, part ski. The unique alpine coaster is a gravity-based ride with individual sleds descending on a raised track through the forest and natural rock formations. The views are amazing!

SNOWMOBILE

Board state-of-the-art snowmobiles for an astonishing adventure through the Vail Valley and the surrounding area. For first timers or expert riders, your guide can design an ideal route – whether touring Vail's northern mountains, the historic Camp Hale or the gorgeous terrain at Piney Valley Ranch.

SNOWCOACH

If you prefer to stay a little warmer, a 13-passenger, heated, four-track snowcoach is the perfect way to see the Colorado backcountry. Rent a private vehicle or go with a group. You'll enjoy a comfortable ride, winding through the White River National Forest or climbing to 12,000 feet (3,658 meters) for majestic views of the Colorado Rockies and the Continental Divide.

DOG SLEDDING

Climb on board! Traditional dog sleds take you through open meadows and glades of pine and aspen trees, following private trails in the backcountry of the Vail Valley. It's pure winter refreshment – feeling the crisp cold air and hearing the sound of the dogs' feet trampling through the snow.

With an array of seven ziplines and aerial bridges, your family can fly through and above the forest habitat – experiencing nearly two miles (three kilometers) of ziplining over the course of a three- to four-hour tour. Learn about the mountain ecosystem while working through the course's challenges.

TOP OF THE MOUNTAIN HIKING TOUR

For less advanced hikers, this tour includes a scenic gondola ride to the mountaintop, followed by an easy walk – taking in incredible views of Vail's legendary Back Bowls, the Gore Range, and Mount of the Holy Cross. We can suggest other hiking routes for all levels, from beginners to experts. Along the way, expert guides point out local flora and fauna, making it a fascinating historical and educational experience.
