

FOUR SEASONS
HOTEL
WASHINGTON, DC

HOLIDAY MARKET

Benefitting Children's National Hospital

The Market launches on December 3rd and will run every Friday, Saturday and Sunday until December 19th.
A portion of the proceeds are donated to Children's National Hospital.

The market is located on the GW terrace and front courtyard of the hotel and features 6 bespoke wooden market stalls as well as alpine décor.

HOURS OF OPERATION:

Fridays from 3pm to 7pm
Saturdays from 12pm to 7pm
Sundays from 12pm to 7pm

Four Seasons Hotel Washington, DC will be servicing a pop-up bar featuring hot chocolate and a holiday cocktail during these times.

Hourly snow flurries will delight and enchant shoppers of all ages!

VENDORS

Local Small Businesses

LIFESTYL CANDLE COMPANY – Founded in 2020 by Carlos Pelham, a native of the Washington DC Metro area and events planner, this weekend hobby to pass the time quickly developed into a passion that led to the launch of Lifestyl Candle Co. The mission of Lifestyl Candle Co. is to offer a collection of clean, modern and sophisticated scents designed for your lifestyle. All products are ethically sourced, vegan and cruelty free.

VIVA VIDA – Having grown up in Australia, Brazil, and Greece, the Viva Vida sister duo, Mary & Ana, bring the family's trade and commitment to continuing the family legacy years later by curating and designing versatile wallet-savvy collections of 18k gold essentials that enhance the way we wear and appreciate jewelry. Offering a chic e-commerce destination for 18k gold, investment-friendly jewelry that you'll wear day to night again and again, Viva Vida can also be found as a new pop-up in Georgetown at 3077 M Street, NW.

DULY NOTED – Husbands, Chris and Tobin started Duly Noted in the middle of COVID to fulfill their passion for well-designed paper goods and a heart for the handwritten note. Duly Noted offers a curated selection of paper goods and gift items from makers across the United States and the world. You can visit their new brick and mortar store at 1355 Wisconsin Avenue, NW.

CESOLI – Cesoli is a collection of intricate belt buckles and reversible belts designed by Liz Dey and Larson Cobb. The buckles honor beauty and nature, including some of the world's strongest female role models. Whether their power lies in wisdom or instinct, resilience or loyalty, flamboyance or nurturing, prepare to be inspired. Cesoli buckles are timeless treasures for you to love, live in, and pass on for generations.

FOUR SEASONS
HOTEL
WASHINGTON, DC

VENDORS - continued
Local Small Businesses

ICONSDC – Founded by Doug Abbey and Alan Sbarra, iconsDC is a simple one: to create a sophisticated collection of products that is uniquely design-forward, crafted of the very finest materials, and which capture Washington's majesty and history as a global cultural Capital – all in new and exciting ways. The iconsDC catalogue is very much a work in progress. As they continue to introduce original private label designs as well as curate a magnificent selection of vintage and limited edition products every week, visit the online catalogue frequently.

YES SHE MAY – Yes She May is a small, but growing team of passionate people who believe in empowering female entrepreneurs around the world. Mei Xu, founder and CEO of Yes She May, launched this site in June 2020 during the peak of the pandemic to help female owned brands thrive. Since then, they have expanded their partnership to close to a hundred independent, women owned businesses and artisans that they can help connect to customers like you!

GEORGETOWN PAPERIE – With a love for the handwritten note and an obsession with beautiful paper, Kathleen Jenkins founded Georgetown Paperie in 2008. Over the years, she has enjoyed working with clients both locally in the Washington DC area and across the country to create custom paper goods – each piece carrying with it her fondness for detail, simplicity and distinctiveness

ALL VERY GOODS – Founder, Ama Shulman, started All Very Goods in her little studio in Washington DC as a place to sell her designs. Her designs draw from her background, her family history, travels and experiences being a black woman in America. While all the products are her designs, her goal is to eventually expand and offer products designed, made and produced by Black women, encouraging them to use their problem solving skills and innovation to create products and support themselves through their own businesses.

DC IS MY CITY – Born in Comarca Lagunera, Mexico, Carlos Carmonamedina is a visual artist and graphic designer with a passion for illustration, print and social media. His ongoing postcard project, started in 2016, DC is my City, chronicles life in the District. The collection of more than 200 prints and postcards explores DC's famed landmarks and lesser-known treasures.

ESPADRIL – Espadril was founded in Cape Town, South Africa by two passionate women, Rizqah and Patricia, who had the vision of bringing the Spanish art of making espadrilles to Africa. Espadril South Africa is made up of an incredible team of men and women who use their artisanal skills to produce our beautiful range of espadrilles. Each pair of shoes sold, not only supports the men and women who handcrafted them, but also their families and communities.

SHEA BY LEE MONET – Shea by Lee Monet is black-owned skin and hair care company founded by Derek (Lee) and Destiny (Monet) Mitchell. They share their love for Shea Butter products and the natural benefits that they provide to all of their customers. All products are created using 100% organic products for all skin types.

ARTIST COLLECTIVE – The Capital Artist Collective is an online gallery that provides a platform for local artists to grow their potential and to provide collectors, young or experienced, access to affordable original art. The Capital Artist Collective sprung from the Charleston Artist Collective which was founded in 2010. The Charleston Artist Collective has grown to 15 local area artists and has given over $100k to local charities. Together, the Capital Artist Collective and the Charleston Artist Collective, are committed to making art part of daily life and to be a catalyst for greater collection, exhibition and appreciation of original art.

FLOWERS X FLORES – flowers x flores grows quality blooms using regenerative practices in Northeast DC. They are inspired by the slow flowers movement and driven by the desire to spread joy without compromising their collective responsibility to the earth. When designing, flowers x flores strives to grow or source what's in season from the nearest farms possible. By choosing flowers x flores, you are choosing to source blooms that make a smaller environmental impact.

FOUR SEASONS

HOTEL
WASHINGTON, DC

12/3-5	12/10-12	12/17-19
Children's Hospital/FS Lifestyle Candle Company/Flowers by Flores Viva Vida Duly Noted Cesoli Artists Collective	Children's Hospital/FS Icons DC Yes She May Georgetown Paperie Viva Vida Lifestyle Candle Company/Flowers by Flores	Children's Hospital/FS Icons DC All Very Goods/DC is my City Espadril Shea by Lee Monet

MUSICIANS

We are thrilled to host Musicians from the Artist in Residence Program at the Music Center at Strathmore joining us throughout the holiday market weekends. Currently scheduled are:

Friday, Dec. 3, 5-7pm

TOBAGO BAY - Tobago Bay is Northern Virginia's HOT Calypso band featuring music from the Caribbean and the sound of steel drums. With music ranging from Soca and Calypso to Latin, Pop, and Jazz, this versatile ranging from solo steel pan to the full 5 member compliment, includes both vocal and instrumental tunes.

Saturday Dec. 4, 5-7pm

CHRIS URQUIGA (vocals/keys) - A multi-faceted singer-songwriter, Chris Urquiaga's music combines Latin rhythms, pop, R&B, and more. Urquiaga has been commissioned by numerous organizations including the Congressional Chorus and Prince George's Philharmonic.

Sunday Dec. 5, 12-2pm

CAPITAL BLEND - Capital Blend is an all-female professional vocal band based in Washington, DC. Under the motto "United in Harmony, Driven by Song," Capital Blend has spent a decade celebrating music and women, achieving national renown. With an eclectic repertoire and fierce style, Capital Blend has performed internationally, won a CARA award for "Best Song," and sang on national television on "Full Frontal with Samantha Bee."

Sunday Dec. 5, 5-7pm

DEBORAH BOND AND TREY SORRELLS (vocals, sax and keys) - Launching from her longtime home-base of Washington, D.C. and taking flight to the rest of the world, Debórah Bond has become an integral part of the fabric of the worldwide indie-soul scene. Playing for eager and excited audiences, she headlined packed houses around the US and EU including: Warner Theater, 9:30 Club, Kennedy Center Millenium Stage, Blues Alley, Blue Note NYC, Cobb Performing Arts Center in Atlanta, and Jazz Café in London. In 2015, she headlined a four-week international residency for Jazz At Lincoln Center in Doha. Trey Sorrells fell in love with the saxophone at age 12. After honing his sax skills in church, Sorrells became enamored with hard-bop jazz popularized by Cannonball Adderley and Miles Davis. Sorrells' unique sound combines aspects of hard-bop with gospel melodies.

Saturday Dec. 11, 2-4pm

JAMES FERNANDO - Since graduating summa cum laude from Berklee College of Music, pianist and composer James Fernando continues to amass critical acclaim and recognition. This "prodigiously gifted composer and virtuoso pianist," (World Music Report) merges jazz, classical, and electronic music. Fernando relies on his genre-expanding original compositions to deliver thought-provoking, exciting performances.

FOUR SEASONS
HOTEL
WASHINGTON, DC

Saturday Dec. 11, 5-7pm

CHRISTYLEZ BACON (Beat Box/Rap/ guitar) - Christylez Bacon (pronounced: chris-styles) is a GRAMMY® Nominated Progressive Hip-Hop artist and multi-instrumentalist from Southeast, Washington, DC. As a performer, Christylez multi-tasks between various instruments such as the West African djembe drum, acoustic guitar, and the human beat-box (oral percussion), all while continuing the oral tradition of storytelling through his lyrics.

Sunday, Dec. 12, 3-5pm

CRUSH FUNK BRASS BAND - The Crush Funk Band is a brilliant, innovative group of young musicians hailing from Washington DC. Comprised of alums from The University of The District of Columbia, Bowie State University, and Howard University. Influenced by all genres of music, the band's style is unique, embodying the brass tones of New Orleans, with an Urban Capital City modern pop-fun(k) twist. The mission of the band is simple: "To bring life to the city through music where least expected, to enrich the lives of others and to continue growing and striving for high musical excellence."

Sunday, Dec. 12, 6-7pm

SANKTA LUCIA PROCESSION – The Swedish Church Youth Choir will perform the traditional Sankta Lucia Procession for all to enjoy. There will be two 20-minute performances.

Friday, Dec. 17, 5-7pm

SHEYDA DO'A - Musician, vocalist, singer-songwriter, mathematician—is there anything Sheyda Do'a can't do? Drawing on her multi-cultural heritage and upbringing in Albania, Do'a blends sounds from across the globe into what she calls "melodies for the soul."

Saturday Dec. 18, 12-2pm

YOUNG ARTISTS OF AMERICA - The only program of its kind, Young Artists of America presents symphonic theatrical productions featuring young performing artists from the Greater Washington, DC area alongside professional mentors.

Saturday Dec. 18, 5-7pm

JOSANNE FRANCIS (Steel pan) – Born and raised in the twin-island Republic of Trinidad & Tobago, Josanne Francis is an internationally known steelpan performer and music educator. Her music delivers that special 'extra' that separates her from even the greats, and catapults listeners into a unique place. Ms. Francis' music blends together and draws influences from traditional Calypso music, Jazz, Indian, Funk, Rock and Classical music.

